Date of decision: 13.03.2026

Harbans Kaur Nagra ... Petitioner

State of Punjab and others ... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASJIT SINGH BEDI

Present: Mr. Paramjit Singh Bal, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

Mr. Ekom Pal Sagoo, AAG, Haryana.

Mr. Prabhdeep Singh Toor, Advocate for respondents.

JASJIT SINGH BEDI, J. (Oral)

The prayer in the present petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India is for issuance of directions to the respondent No.2 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner, which is in danger at the hands of respondents No.6 to 8, who in connivance with each other have committed a fraud by solemnizing marriage of the son of the petitioner with respondent No.5 just to send the respondent No.5 abroad.

The counsel for the petitioner has sought protection facing a threat to the life of the petitioner.

The counsel for respondent No.5 submits that marriage was solemnized between the son of the petitioner and respondent No.5. Now, a divorce has been granted to the couple in Canada. Neither the petitioner nor the family members face any any threats at the hands of the private respondents. In fact, the petition has been filed way back in the year 2023 and no untoward incident had taken place in the last few years.

The counsel for the State has not disputed the factual position that the present petition is an outcome of a matrimonial dispute wherein the couple itself has been divorced in Canada. Further, neither the petitioner nor her family members require any protection at the hands of the private respondents.

In view of the respective contentions raised by both the sides, I find no merit in the present petition and the same stands dismissed.
