VIKRAM AGGARWAL, J (ORAL)

The instant contempt petition alleges willful disobedience of order dated 23.09.2025 passed in CWP No. 27657 of 2025, vide which the following directions were issued:-

“6. At this stage, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to decide the representation dated 01.08.2025 (Annexure P-15) submitted by the petitioner, within a period of four months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order by passing a speaking and well reasoned order. In case, it is found that the petitioner is entitled to any consequential relief, the same shall also be released to him forthwith.

7. Disposed of.”

2. Today, learned counsel for the respondent-State has produced a copy of speaking order dated 04.02.2026, in which it has been held as under:-

“5.0. it is also informed here that as per the opinion received vide the said letter dated 01.07.2025 of the Government of Punjab, Department of Personnel (Personnel Policies-1-Branch), the required information is being obtained from the concerned institutions by this office. No decision can be taken in this matter until information is received from the concerned institutions. The department will take an immediate decision after receiving the necessary information from Guru Angad Dev Veterinary and Animal Sciences University, Ludhiana (GADVASU) and Remount and Veterinary Corps, Meerut (RVD). Therefore, the claim of the petitioners is rejected until the necessary information is received from the said institutions and a decision is taken by the department.”

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in view of the speaking order having been passed, he does not press the contempt petition at this stage. He however submits that a direction be issued to the respondents to obtain the requisite information expeditiously.

4. To this, learned State counsel submits that all efforts shall be made to obtain the information expeditiously.

5. The contempt petition is accordingly disposed off in terms of the statements given by learned counsel for the parties.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
