On the last date of hearing, learned counsel for the appellants states that he has not been able to contact the appellants for the purpose of settlement. There was also no representation on behalf of the respondents. Therefore, notices were issued to the appellants as well as respondents to appear in person before this Forum to explore the possibility of settlement. As per office report, notices issued to the appellants as well as respondents have been received back with the remarks that appellants No.1 to 6 and respondent No.4 are not residing at the given address; appellants No.7 and 8 have since expired; notice issued to respondent No.1 has not been received back and respondent No.2 has shifted his office to some other place 10/12 years ago.

Today, learned counsel for the appellants submits that since he has no further instructions in this case, this case may be consigned to record room. In view of the statement made by the learned counsel for the appellants, this matter is consigned to the record room with liberty to the appellants to revive the same by filing an appropriate application before this Forum, if the need arises.

A copy of this order be sent to the appellants at the given address, so that the appellants could take appropriate steps for revival of the same.
