CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUMEET GOEL

Present: Mr. Rajesh Tushar, Advocate, for the petitioner

Mr. Gurmeet Singh, AAG, Haryana

SUMEET GOEL, J. (ORAL)

1. Present petition has been filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short 'BNSS') for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.119 dated 3.6.2023 under Sections 379-A and 34 of IPC, registered at Police Station City Safidon, District Jind.

2. The case set up in the FIR in question (as set out in the present petition by the petitioner) is as follows:-

'To SHO Sahib, Police Station City Safidon, For snatching of chain from neck, Sir, I request that I am Ram Pyari W/o Sh. Darshan Lal R/o Ward No. 15, Near Cards Velly School, Shiv Colony. Today at about 05:30 AM, I alongwith her husband had gone to fetch milk from the house of Satta Saini near the river. While they were returning home, she was following her husband about 06:12 AM, when they reached near the house of Ram

Niwas, one motorcycle came from the front side. She got on the side. However, the motorcyclist stopped the motorcycle by her side. The pillion rider snatched the chain from her neck and thereafter, both of them ran away. She fell down and raised alarm. She stated that the driver of the motorcyclist was wearing a helmet whereas the pillion rider had covered his face with handkerchief and cap. I am prayed that legal action be taken against these persons. Date 03.03.2023 Sd/- Ram Pyari Applicant wife of Darshan Lal R/o Shiv Colony, Safidon, M. 9896248542.'

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody since 9.6.2023. Learned counsel has further argued that the petitioner has been falsely implicated into the FIR in question primarily on account of his antecedents. Learned counsel has further submitted that the petitioner has already suffered incarceration for more than 2 years and 9 months. Thus, regular bail is prayed for.

4. Learned State counsel has opposed the present petition by arguing that the allegations raised against the petitioner are serious in nature and, thus, he does not deserve the concession of the regular bail. Learned State counsel seeks to place on record custody certificate dated 13.3.2026 in Court, which is taken on record.

5. I have heard counsel for the rival parties and have gone through the available records of the case.

6. The petitioner was arrested on 9.6.2023, whereinafter, investigation was carried out and the challan was presented on 7.8.2023. Total 16 prosecution witnesses have been cited, out of which 6 have been examined till date. It is not in dispute that FIR-complainant as also her husband, who are stated to be eye witnesses, have since been examined.

The rival contentions raised at Bar give rise to debatable issues shall be ratiocinated upon during the course of trial. This Court does not deem it appropriate to delve deep into these rival contentions, at this stage, lest it may prejudice the trial. Nothing tangible has been brought forward to indicate the likelihood of the petitioner absconding from the process of justice or interfering with the prosecution evidence.

6.1. As per custody certificate dated 13.3.2026 filed by the learned State counsel, the petitioner has already suffered incarceration for a period of 2 years, 9 months and 2 days. As per the said custody certificate, the petitioner is stated to be involved in other FIRs. Indubitably, the antecedents of a person are required to be accounted for while considering a regular bail petition preferred by him. However, this factum cannot be a ground sufficient by itself, to decline the concession of regular bail to the petitioner in the FIR in question when a case is made out for grant of regular bail qua the FIR in question by ratiocinating upon the facts/circumstances of the said FIR. Reliance in this regard can be placed upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi v. State of U.P. and another, 2012 (1) RCR (Criminal) 586; a Division Bench judgment of the Hon'ble Calcutta High Court in case of Sridhar Das v. State, 1998 (2) RCR (Criminal) 477 & judgments of this Court in CRM-M No.38822-2022 titled as Akhilesh Singh v. State of Haryana, decided on 29.11.2021, and Balraj v. State of Haryana, 1998 (3) RCR (Criminal) 191.

Suffice to say, further detention of the petitioner as an undertrial is not warranted in the facts and circumstances of the case.

7. In view of above, the present petition is allowed. Petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on his furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the Ld. concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate. However, in addition to conditions that may be imposed by the concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate, the petitioner shall remain bound by the following conditions:

- (i) The petitioner shall not mis-use the liberty granted.
- (ii) The petitioner shall not tamper with any evidence, oral or documentary, during the trial.
- (iii) The petitioner shall not absent himself on any date before the trial.
- (iv) The petitioner shall not commit any offence while on bail.
- (v) The petitioner shall deposit his passport, if any, with the trial Court.
- (vi) The petitioner shall give his cellphone number to the Investigating Officer/SHO of concerned Police Station and shall not change his cell-phone number without prior permission of the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate.
- (vii) The petitioner shall not in any manner try to delay the trial.

8. In case of breach of any of the aforesaid conditions and those which may be imposed by concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate as directed hereinabove or upon showing any other sufficient cause, the State/complainant shall be at liberty to move cancellation of bail of the petitioner.

9. Ordered accordingly.

10. Nothing said hereinabove shall be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
