ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J. (Oral)

1. This bunch of '98' cases involve identical issue, therefore, the same are being dealt with together. For sake of convenience, facts of LPA-1810-2025, are being extracted herein below.

2. This appeal arises out of a judgment passed by the learned Single Judge dated 22.01.2025, whereby a batch of writ petitions were disposed of in the light of following directions:-

- “i. No petitioner would be regularized as per policy of 1996;*
- ii. The respondent shall consider and decide claim of petitioners, within 6 months from today, who are claiming regularization as per policy of 2003;*
- iii. If any of the petitioners is found eligible to regularization as per policy of 2003, he shall be entitled to arrears from the date of filing petition before this Court. The arrears shall not carry interest. If any petitioner has already retired, his/her pensionary benefits will also be fixed/revised apart from arrears from the date of filing petition before this Court. It is made clear that this Court has not declared that policy of 2003 is applicable to each instrumentality of the State Government. The competent authority of each organization would independently examine this aspect and employee would be granted opportunity of hearing if any adverse opinion is formed.*
- iv. The respondent shall consider and decide claim of petitioners, within 6 months from today, who are claiming regularization as per policy of 2011. The respondent while deciding claim of employees as per policy of 2011 shall take care of findings recorded hereinabove.*
- v. If any of the petitioner is found eligible to regularization as per policy of 2011, he shall be entitled to arrears from the date of filing petition before this Court. The arrears shall not carry interest.*
- vi. Any employee who has already been made permanent by way of appointment letters issued in 2014 shall not be entitled to benefit of previous policies of regularization.*
- vii. The petitioners who are not eligible to benefit of policy of 2003 or 2011 shall be considered as per 2024 Act. Their claim would also be reconsidered as per policy of 2014 after final* decision of Supreme Court with respect to validity of policy of 2014.”

3. The judgment of the learned Single Judge has primarily been assailed by the State and its bodies relying upon a judgment of the Division Bench of this Court in Yogesh Tyagi and another v. State of Haryana and others, CWP No.17206 of 2014. In Yogesh Tyagi (supra), regularization policies framed from time to time by the State of Haryana came up for consideration on the ground that such policies violated the dictum of the Constitutional Bench in Secretary, State of Karnataka v. Uma Devi, (2006) 4 SCC 1.

4. Hearing in the instant appeals was deferred as we were informed that the Division Bench judgment of this Court in Yogesh Tyagi (supra) has been assailed before the Hon’ble Supreme Court and the matter is still pending. The aforesaid issue came up for adjudication before us in LPA-834-2021, decided on 19.03.2026, wherein, we passed the following orders:-

“12. In the facts of the present case, we are of the view that the respondent’s claim for regularization has to await completion of the proceedings before the Hon’ble Supreme Court in Yogesh Tyagi (supra). The subsequent writ petition filed in the year 2020 or the judgment of learned Single Judge passed thereupon, are clearly an improbable course followed by the respondent.

13. In view of the above discussion, the appeal filed by the State of Haryana succeeds and is allowed. The judgment and order of the learned Single Judge dated 05.04.2021 passed in CWP No.9137 of 2020 is set aside. The claim for regularization of the respondent shall be dealt with in terms of final adjudication by the Hon’ble Supreme Court in the case of Yogesh Tyagi (supra).”

5. Today, when the matter is taken up, we are informed that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has finally decided the issue raised in the case of Yogesh Tyagi (supra) while considering a bunch of connected cases, vide judgment rendered in Madan Singh and others vs. State of Haryana, Civil Appeal No.1996 of 2024, decided on 16.04.2026.

6. The judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court elaborately deals with the policy for regularization framed by the State of Haryana and keeping in view the principles laid down by the Constitutional Bench in Uma Devi (supra), the permissible course of action available for the State to regularize services of the employees has been elaborately specified.

7. Learned Advocate General, Haryana, makes a statement before the Court that if a liberty is granted to the State to examine the individual claim of each of the employee (either appellants or respondents herein), then separate orders would be passed in respect of each of such claim keeping in view the principles laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Madan Singh (supra).

8. Although various submissions have been advanced on behalf of the respondents – writ petitioners but we are not inclined to delve upon such arguments in view of the statement made by the learned Advocate General, Haryana, as per which, the claim of all employees would be accorded fresh consideration in the light of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Madan Singh (supra).

9. In that view of the matter, all the appeals are disposed of with a direction upon the State of Haryana/its Bodies/Corporation/Nigam to accord fresh consideration to the claim of employees involved in this batch of cases by passing a speaking order in respect of their claim for regularization within a period of six months. The judgment of the learned Single Judge under appeal stands modified in the light of the principles laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Madan Singh (supra). Till an appropriate order in respect of claim of each of the employees is passed, status quo as exists today would be maintained. It goes without saying that the claim of regularization based on policy of 2011 will also be accorded consideration keeping in view the principles laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Madan Singh (supra) and the order impugned in the present batch of appeals/writ petitions would not come in the way of fresh consideration of the claim of employees for regularization.

10. In order to facilitate a fresh consideration of claim of the individual employee, we direct each employee to submit a comprehensive representation to the department along with a copy of this order within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

11. All pending misc. application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
