...RESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUVIR SEHGAL
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK MANCHANDA

Present: Mr. Saurabh Bajaj, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Pulkit Goyal, Advocate for the respondents-PNB.

SUVIR SEHGAL, J.(ORAL)

1. Petitioner is a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 and it is running an education institution. It has approached this Court with apprehension that its building is being put to an auction and in case the possession is taken, examinations, which are starting from third week of March, 2026, would be put to disarray.
2. Advance copy of the petition has been served upon the bank-respondents, who are on caveat.

3. Respondents have put in appearance through Mr. Pulkit Goyal, Advocate. Counsel for the respondents has made a reference to demand notice dated 02.07.2025, Annexure P-17, as well as sale notice dated 07.02.2026, Annexure P-23, and states that land measuring 14 marlas, where hostel of the educational institution is situated, is being put to auction on 17.03.2026. He has made a categoric statement that education institution building is not being put to auction vide sale notice, Annexure P-23. He has further instructions to state that in case auction succeeds, possession of auctioned property will be taken during vacation, after giving a sufficient notice to borrower.

4. Counsel for the petitioner states that he is satisfied with statement made by counsel for bank. He seeks and is granted permission to withdraw the writ petition.

5. Dismissed as withdrawn.
