CRM-14685-2026

This is an application seeking advancement of next date of hearing i.e. 27.04.2026 fixed in the main case to some earlier date.

Since, the main petition has been listed for today itself, the present application has been rendered infructuous and is disposed of as such.

CRM-M-14815-2026

The prayer in the present petition under Section 483 BNSS is for the grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case bearing FIR No.126 dated 10.11.2025 under Sections 305(a), 331(3), 317(2) and 238 of BNS

(corresponding Sections 380, 454, 411 and 201 of IPC), registered at Police Station Nayagaon, District SAS Nagar.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner contends that a compromise has been arrived at between the parties. As the petitioner is in custody since 09.12.2025 but none of the 11 prosecution witnesses has been examined so far, the Trial of the present case is not likely to be concluded anytime soon and therefore, she is entitled to the concession of regular bail.

4. The counsel for the State has filed a reply dated 06.04.2026 which is taken on record. While referring to the same, he contends that the allegations levelled against the petitioner are grave, therefore, she is not entitled to the concession as prayed for. He, however, concedes that the petitioner is in custody since 09.12.2025 and that none of the 11 prosecution witnesses has been examined so far.

5. The counsel for the complainant contends that a compromise has been arrived at between the parties and the complainant has no objection in case, the petitioner is granted the concession of regular bail.

6. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

7. Admittedly, a compromise has been arrived at between the parties. The petitioner is in custody since 09.12.2025 but none of the 11 prosecution witnesses has been examined so far. Therefore, the Trial in the present case is not likely to be concluded anytime soon. In this situation, the further incarceration of the petitioner is not required.
