

again if released on bail. However, it has been fairly submitted by the State that the co-accused in the present case has already been acquitted.

3. The petitioner is in custody for the last about 10 months. The co-accused, who was the main accused in the present case, already stands acquitted. The role attributed to the present petitioner is primarily on the basis of disclosure statement of the main accused. The petitioner has undertaken to appear before the trial Court on each and every date of hearing and to abide by all the conditions imposed by the Court. The trial is likely to take time for its conclusion. In these circumstances, continued incarceration of the petitioner would serve no useful purpose.

4. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail subject to furnishing adequate bail and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned.

5. All pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
