PARMOD GOYAL, J. (ORAL)

Present regular second appeal has been preferred by appellants for setting aside judgment and decree dated 11.08.1995 passed by learned Sub-Judge, First Class, Kurushetra, Haryana and judgment and decree dated 14.12.1999 passed by learned Additional District Judge, Kurukshetra, Haryana.

2. Admittedly, in present case, a compromise was effected between the parties for closure of windows which opened into the plot falling in the share of respondent. The dispute was whether the compromise was duly effected or not.

3. Learned counsel for appellants has filed copies of photographs showing closure of windows and copies of compromise to said effect. This fact is admitted by learned counsel for respondent.

4. In view of above, present appeal is disposed in terms of compromise deed dated 09.08.2002 annexed as Annexure A-1 in the application (CM-7546-C-2023) for placing on record settlement arrived between the parties and photographs.
