AT CHANDIGARH

Sr.No.133

CRM-M-14374-2026
Decided on : 17.03.2026

Navjot Singh

..... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RUPINDERJIT CHAHAL

Present : Mr. Mohinder Singh Joshi, Advocate for the petitioner.

RUPINDERJIT CHAHAL, J (ORAL)

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 528 BNSS, 2023 for issuance of directions to the respondents to conduct a fair and impartial investigation and for protection of the petitioner from false implication in case FIR No.412 dated 12.09.2025, registered under Sections 125(a) and 281 of the BNS, 2023, at Police Station Shivaji Colony, District Rohtak.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that the petitioner has no connection with the offending vehicle. He further contends that the offending vehicle is not insured with any insurance company and the Investigating Officer in connivance with the owner of the said truck wants to involve the petitioner in the said offence. Learned counsel contends that there is no evidence which links the petitioner with the alleged offence. He further contends that the petitioner moved a representation dated 21.02.2026 (Annexure P-6) to respondent No.2-The Superintendent of Police, Rohtak but till date no action has been taken. It is thus prayed that an appropriate direction be issued to the official respondent(s) to conduct a fair, impartial

3. Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and after perusing the record of the case with his able assistance, this Court finds no force in the arguments advanced on behalf of the petitioner.

4. A two Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sakiri Vasu Vs. State of U.P. and others, (2008) 2 SCC 409 has held that the Magistrate has been bestowed with all necessary powers to ensure proper investigation under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. Discouraging the practice of approaching the High Court for redressal of grievances like non-registration of FIR or improper investigation, Justice Markandey Katju made the following observations:

“27. As we have already observed above, the Magistrate has very wide powers to direct registration of an FIR and to ensure a proper investigation, and for this purpose he can monitor the investigation to ensure that the investigation is done properly (though he cannot investigate himself). The High Court should discourage the practice of filing a writ petition or petition under Section 482 Criminal Procedure Code simply because a person has a grievance that his FIR has not been registered by the police, or after being registered, proper investigation has not been done by the police. For this grievance, the remedy lies under Sections 36 and 154(3) before the concerned police officers, and if that is of no avail, under Section 156(3) Criminal Procedure Code before the Magistrate or by filing a criminal complaint under Section 200 Criminal Procedure Code and not by filing a writ petition or a petition under Section 482 Criminal Procedure Code.

28. It is true that alternative remedy is not an absolute bar to a writ petition, but it is equally well settled that if there is an alternative remedy the High Court should not ordinarily interfere.”

5. This ratio was reiterated in the judgments rendered by the Hon’ble Supreme Court in Sudhir Bhaskarrao Tambe Vs. Hemant Yashwant Dhangre and others, (2016) 6 SCC 277, M. Subramaniam and another Vs. S. Janaki and another, (2020) 16 SCC 728.
6. The High Courts, while exercising its inherent powers under Section 528 BNSS (Section 482 of erstwhile Cr.P.C.), can issue directions for prompt and proper investigation, however, it would be out of bounds to instruct the investigation to be completed in a certain time frame, in alignment with the opinion expressed by it. The Courts must be conscious of its influence and not exercise the same in an unwarranted fashion as it may prejudice the conclusion of the investigating agency, straying further away from achieving the overarching goal of justice.
7. Further, even though the jurisdictional Magistrate is well equipped to deal with such type of matters, learned counsel for the petitioner has not able to provide a satisfactory response regarding approaching this Court directly instead of the concerned jurisdictional Court by filing an appropriate application under Section Section 175(3) of BNSS, 2023 (Section 156(3) Cr.P.C.).
8. In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is not inclined to issue any such direction. Accordingly, present petition is dismissed being bereft of any merit.
