AMARINDER SINGH GREWAL, J.(ORAL)

1. On the previous date of hearing, learned counsel for the appellant had submitted that he was not in touch with the legal representatives of the appellant, as the appellant is stated to have died, as per the office report, and he sought some time to try to contact them and to make his final submissions.

2. Today again, learned counsel appearing for the appellant submits that, despite his best efforts, he has been unable to get in touch with the legal representatives of the appellant.

3. Keeping in view the above, this Court is left with no other option but to dismiss the appeal for non-prosecution, as it appears that the legal representatives of the appellant are not interested in pursuing the appeal.
4. Consequently, the appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution. However, liberty is granted to the legal representatives of the appellant to move an appropriate application for revival of the present appeal, if so advised, in accordance with law.
