

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

176

CRM-M-14629-2026

Date of Decision : 17.03.2026

VIPAN KUMAR

...Petitioner

VERSUS

STATE OF PUNJAB

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE AARADHNA SAWHNEY

Present: Mr. Ashish Aggarwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

AARADHNA SAWHNEY, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner, an accused in case FIR No.122 dated 08.11.2021 registered u/s 420 IPC at Police Station Division D, District Amritsar City, has prayed for setting aside the order dated 28.01.2026 (Annexure P-8) passed by the learned JMIC, Amritsar, vide which he (P) was declared a 'Proclaimed Person'.

2. The solitary ground raised by learned counsel for the petitioner while assailing the aforesaid order is that petitioner was not served in accordance with the procedure so prescribed under Section 82 Cr.P.C. (now Section 84 of BNSS). In this context, reference has been made to order dated 05.01.2026, which reads as under:-

xxx

Proclamation issued against accused Vipin Kumar already been effected on 15.12.2025. Statement of serving official has also been recorded. Statutory period of 30 days has not been elapsed.

Repeated calls made since morning, but neither accused Vipin Kumar nor any one else has been appeared on his behalf.

Let, file be put up on 16.01.2026 for awaiting appearance of accused Vipin Kumar.”

Learned counsel contends that learned trial Court was conscious of the fact that period of 30 days has not elapsed from the date when the Proclamation was effected at the site and when the accused was directed to appear in the Court, thus, adjourned the case for 16.01.2026. Such an adjournment, is not in ‘sync’ with the procedural requirements of Section 82 Cr.P.C. It is with this backdrop that learned counsel prays for setting aside the impugned order dated 28.01.2026 and prays that a lenient view be taken in favour of the present petitioner, who undertakes to surrender before the Court concerned immediately within a period of 10 days from today and to attend the Court proceedings regularly on each and every date of hearing.

3. Heard. Documents on record perused.

4. At the outset, it needs to be ascertained as to whether the procedural requirements of Section 82 Cr.P.C. were complied with by learned Magistrate before declaring petitioner ‘Proclaimed Person’. In this context, before proceeding further, it would be appropriate to refer to a judgment of Coordinate Bench of this Court in CRM-M-23777-2020 titled Sonu V/s. State of Haryana, decided on 06.10.2020, wherein the essential requirements of section 82 Cr.P.C. for issuance and publication of proclamation against an absconder and declaring him as proclaimed person/offender were discussed as under:

(i) Prior issuance of warrant of arrest by the Court is sine qua non for issuance and publication of the proclamation and the Court has to first issue warrant of arrest against the person concerned. (See Rohit Kumar Vs. State of Delhi : 2008 CrI. J. 2561).

(ii) There must be a report before the Court that the person against whom warrant was issued had absconded or had been concealing himself so that the warrant of arrest could not be executed against him. However, the Court is not bound to take evidence in this regard before issuing a Proclamation under Section 82 (1) of the Cr.P.C.. (See Rohit Kumar Vs. State of Delhi : 2008 CrI. J. 2561).

(iii) The Court cannot issue the Proclamation as a matter of course because the Police is asking for it. The Court must be prima facie satisfied that the person has absconded or is concealing himself so that the warrant of arrest, previously issued, cannot be executed, despite reasonable diligence. (See Bishundayal Mahton and others Vs. Emperor : AIR 1943 Patna 366 and Devender Singh Negi Vs. State of U.P. : 1994 CrI LJ (Allahabad HC) 1783).

(iv) The requisite date and place for appearance must be specified in the proclamation requiring such person to appear on such date at the specified place. Such date must not be less than 30 clear days from the date of issuance and publication of the proclamation. (See Gurappa Gugal and others Vs. State of Mysore : 1969 Cri LJ 826 and Shokat Ali Vs. State of Haryana : 2020(2) RCR (Criminal) 339).

(v) Where the period between issuance and publication of the proclamation and the specified date of hearing is less than thirty days, the accused cannot be declared a proclaimed person/offender and the proclamation has to be issued and published again. (See Dilbagh Singh Vs. State of Punjab (P&H) : 2015 (8) R.C.R. (criminal) 166 and Ashok Kumar Vs. State of Haryana and another : 2013 (4) RCR (Criminal) 550).

(vi) The Proclamation has to be published in the manner laid down in Section 82 (2) of the Cr.P.C.. For publication the proclamation has to be first publicly read in some conspicuous place of the town or village in which the accused ordinarily resides; then the same has to be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides or to some conspicuous place of such town or village and thereafter a copy of the proclamation has to be affixed to some conspicuous part of the Court-house. The three sub-clauses (a)-(c) in Section 82 (2)(i) of the Cr.P.C. are conjunctive and not disjunctive, which means that there would be no valid publication of the proclamation unless all the three modes of publication are proved. (See Pawan Kumar Gupta Vs. The State of W.B. : 1973 CriLJ 1368). Where the Court so orders a copy of the proclamation has to be additionally published in a daily newspaper circulating in the place in which the accused ordinarily resides. Advisably, proclamation has to be issued with four copies so that one each of the three copies of the proclamation may be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides, to some conspicuous place of such town or village and to some conspicuous part of the Court-house and report regarding publication may be made on the fourth copy of the proclamation. Additional copy will be required where the proclamation is also required to be published in the newspaper.

(vii) Statement of the serving officer has to be recorded by the Court as to the date and mode of publication of the proclamation. (See Birad Dan Vs. State : 1958 CriLJ 965).

(viii) The Court issuing the proclamation has to make a statement in writing in its order that the proclamation was duly published on a specified day in a manner specified in Section 82(2)(i) of the Cr.P.C.. Such statement in writing by the Court is declared to be conclusive evidence that the requirements of Section 82 have been complied with and that the proclamation was published on such day. (See Birad Dan Vs. State : 1958 CriLJ 965).

(xi) The conditions specified in Section 82(2) of the Cr.P.C. for the publication of a Proclamation against an absconder are mandatory. Any non-compliance therewith cannot be cured as an 'irregularity' and renders the Proclamation and proceedings subsequent thereto a nullity. (See Devendra Singh Negi alias Debu Vs. State of U.P. and another : 1994 CriLJ 1783 and Pal Singh Vs. The State : 1955 CriLJ 318).

While interpreting, the provision of Section 82 (1) Cr.P.C., this Court in Ashok Kumar vs. State of Haryana and another, 2013(4) RCR (Criminal) 550, has held that a period of 30 days is required to be given to the accused and that even in case, the Court adjourns the matter subsequently, such adjournment beyond 30 days cannot be treated as compliance of requisite provisions.

Similar proposition of law was laid down in Prit Pal Singh vs. State of Punjab and others, CRM-M-40897-2019, decided on 03.02.2020.

In the case in hand, a bare perusal of interim order dated 05.01.2026 goes to show that based on the office report, it was concluded by learned JMIC that publication was effected on 15.12.2025. But since the period of 30 days had not elapsed from the date when the Proclamation Proceedings was effected and when the accused had to appear, thus, the case was adjourned. In the light of referred judgments, such an adjournment would not cure the initial defect.

5. Resultantly, the present petition stands allowed. Impugned order dated 28.01.2026 (Annexure P-8) is set aside. Petitioner is directed to appear before the Court concerned within a period of 10 days from today. On his appearance before the Court concerned, he shall be readmitted to bail on his furnishing fresh bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court. He is also directed to furnish an undertaking by way of an affidavit that he will appear on each and every date of hearing before the trial Court, unless specifically exempted by the Court. He shall not leave the country without prior permission of the Court. The trial Court may impose any other condition that it may deem appropriate in the facts and circumstances of the present case.

Before parting with this order, it is made abundantly clear that in case the petitioner does not adhere to the aforesaid, the present petition shall be deemed to have been dismissed without any reference to this Court.
