...Petitioner

State of Punjab

...Respondent

Present: Mr. Rhythem Bajaj, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Gautam Thapar, Sr. DAG, Punjab.

AARADHNA SAWHNEY, J. (ORAL)

1. Challenge in the present petition is to the order dated 11.11.2025 (Annexure P-6) passed by the Ld. Additional Sessions Judge, Fazilka in FIR No.62 dated 19.07.2021 u/s 307/324/326/323/341/506/148/149 IPC, PS City-2, Abohar, vide which bail of petitioner was cancelled. His bail/surety bonds were also cancelled and forfeited to the State and presence was sought to be procured through NBWs.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. In any case, he was granted the concession of bail by this Court vide order dated 30.01.2024 (Annexure P-2). Since then petitioner had been regularly appearing before the Court. However, on 11.11.2025 on account of certain unavoidable reason, he(P) could not appear before the concerned Court. Resultantly, the impugned order was passed. It is further the submission of learned counsel that a lenient view be taken in favour of the petitioner, who is ready to immediately surrender and also undertakes to regularly appear before the Court concerned. With this backdrop, it has been prayed that the order dated 11.11.2025 (Annexure P-6) be set aside.

3. Heard. Documents on record perused.

4. This Court in CRM-M-36490-2022, titled as Major Singh vs. State of Punjab, decided on 15.09.2022, while considering the bonafide of the petitioner and finding the reason for his absence justified, set aside the order issuing non-bailable warrants. In CRM-M-38277-2022, Surjit Singh vs. State of Punjab, dated 26.08.2022 and CRM-M-39000-2022, titled as Raghav vs. State of Punjab, decided on 09.09.2022, the orders whereby non-bailable warrants were issued on account of his non-appearance, were set aside on the ground that the same was on account of having noted down the wrong date and failure of his counsel in not intimating the same.

Moreover, the primary purpose of issuing a non-bailable warrant is to secure the appearance of the accused, especially when they fail to appear after being served summons or if they are likely to abscond. Courts issue NBWs as a last resort, after first attempting to secure attendance through summons and bailable warrants.

5. In the interest of justice, considering the facts and circumstances of the case and judgments referred hereinabove, the impugned order dated 11.11.2025 (Annexure P-6) passed by the Ld. ASJ, Fazilka, is set aside. Petition is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to appear before the Court concerned within a period of 15 days from today. In case, he surrenders before the court concerned within a period mentioned above, he shall be readmitted to bail on his furnishing fresh bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Judge/Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate concerned. Petitioner is also directed to furnish an undertaking by way of an affidavit that he will appear on each and every date of hearing before the trial Court, unless specifically exempted by the Court. He shall not leave the country without prior permission of the Court. The trial Court may impose any other condition that it may deem appropriate in the facts and circumstances of the present case.

6. Before parting with this order, it is made abundantly clear that in case the petitioner does not adhere to the aforesaid, the present petition shall be deemed to have been dismissed without any reference to this Court.
