Further prayer has been made for directing the respondents to re-fix the pay of the petitioners after granting them due benefit of ACP i.e. grade pay of Rs.10,000/- with re-designation as Professors and to release the arrears of pay with interest @ 12% per annum from the due date.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners became eligible for grant of promotion from Associate Professors to Professors (AGP 9000 to 10000) from 2018 to 2023. However, the said benefit has not been granted to the petitioners despite the fact that they have duly appeared before the committee as is clear from a bare perusal of communication dated 10.12.2025 (Annexure P-25). He further submits that all the petitioners have also submitted representations to respondent No.1, which are still pending consideration and the petitioners would be satisfied if the representations of the petitioners are considered and decided by passing a speaking order in a time-bound frame.

3. Notice of motion.

4. Mr. Priyavrat Parashar, AAG, Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of the respondents and has no objection to the innocuous prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioners.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record of the case.

6. Without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case or the claim being made by the petitioners in the present petition, respondent No.1 is directed to consider and decide the claim made by the petitioners in their representations {representation dated 18.05.2023 (Annexure P-26) is attached herewith} in accordance with law, by
