1. This petition has been filed under Section 528 BNSS, 2023 seeking setting aside of impugned order dated 23.02.2026 (Annexure P-7) passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Yamuna Nagar at Jagadhri, District Yamuna Nagar, in case bearing FIR No.564 dated 18.07.2023 registered under Sections 148, 149, 323, 325, 341, 379-B and 506 of IPC, at P.S. City Yamuna Nagar, District Yamuna Nagar (Annexure P-1), whereby, the bail of the petitioner has been cancelled and his bail bonds/surety bonds have been forfeited to the State followed by issuance of non-bailable warrants of arrest.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was on bail and was regularly appearing before learned trial Court. However, on 23.02.2026, due to high fever and vomiting, the petitioner could not appear before the trial Court, qua to which an application for exemption was moved which was dismissed by the learned trial Court. Subsequently, vide order dated 23.02.2026, learned trial Court cancelled the bail of the petitioner, his bail bonds were forfeited and his non-bailable warrants were issued.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that non-appearance of the petitioner was not deliberate or intentional and thus, aggrieved by the said order, he has approached this Court by way of instant petition. It is contended that the impugned order is liable to be set aside on the ground of unintentional non-appearance of the petitioner.

4. It is also submitted that the petitioner undertakes to appear before the trial Court on each and every date.

5. Notice of motion.

6. Mr. Armaan Dahiya, AAG, Haryana, who is present in Court, accepts notice for the respondent-State and submits that the impugned order has been passed on the sole ground of the absence of the petitioner, however, it is not disputed by him that petitioner was already on bail and had been appearing before the trial Court.

7. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record of the case with their able assistance and with the consent of parties, the matter is taken up for final disposal.

8. Whether the default on the part of the accused is intentional or unintentional depends on facts of each case. In the present case, the petitioner did not appear on 23.02.2026 before the learned Trial Court and ultimately on 23.02.2026 his bail was cancelled, bail bonds were forfeited to State followed by issuance of non-bailable warrants. By filing the present petition the petitioner has shown his intention to submit before the learned Trial Court.

9. The sole purpose of issuance of bailable/non-bailable warrants is to secure presence of the accused before the trial Court. The petitioner in the present case has himself come forward and has undertaken to appear before the trial Court on each and every date.

10. Considering the totality of circumstances, this Court is of the view that the petitioner can be directed to appear before the trial Court, so that trial may resume.
