VIRINDER AGGARWAL, J. (Oral)

1. The present revision petition has been filed by the petitioner/plaintiff assailing the order dated 12.03.2026, whereby, after entertaining the civil suit, the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Panipat, directed issuance of notice to the defendants for 03.04.2026, without issuing any notice in respect of the interim injunction application filed under Order 39 Rules 1 & 2 CPC.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioner-company is operating a petrol pump under the name and style of "Panipat Filling Station, Panipat". It is further submitted that there exists a dispute among the partners of the petrol pump, and as a consequence, the oil company has suspended the supply to the filling station vide letter dated 19.03.2026. This suspension, according to the petitioners, is causing serious hardship to petitioner No.3-firm and is likely to result in irreparable loss, which warrants immediate consideration of the interim injunction application.

3. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and in the interest of justice and equity, the present revision petition is disposed of with directions to the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Panipat, to issue notice of the interim injunction application filed under Order 39 Rules 1 & 2 CPC for the date already fixed, i.e., 03.04.2026, and on that date, shall hear both the civil suit and the interim injunction application together, passing a comprehensive and reasoned order that takes into account the difficulties being faced by petitioner No.3 company due to the suspension of supply by the oil company, addresses the interim relief sought, and considers the potential irreparable loss claimed by the petitioners.
