for respondent No.6

DEEPINDER SINGH NALWA, J.(Oral)

1 In the present writ petition, the petitioner has challenged the action of the respondents, whereby, proposal was to remove the petitioner from the post of Cook-cum-Helper bypassing her superior and meritorious claim vis-à-vis private respondents.

2. At the very outset, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that during the pendency of the present writ petition, the petitioner was relieved from service. He, on instructions from the petitioner, submits that he will be satisfied, if at this stage, the petitioner may be permitted to submit a representation for reinstatement in service and respondent No.3 may be directed to decide the same in a time bound manner.

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent(s)-State does not oppose the prayer made by the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner.

4. In view of above and without commenting upon the merits of the case, the present writ petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.3, that in case, the petitioner submits a representation for reinstatement in service, respondent No.3 shall consider and decide the same, in accordance with law/rules, within a period of 02 months, from the date of submission of such representation.

5. Pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, also stands disposed of.
