AMARINDER SINGH GREWAL, J.(ORAL)

1. Today is the fifth successive date on which there is no representation on behalf of the appellants, despite the fact that learned counsel for the parties have been informed by the Registry. Further, as per the report of the Registry, notices issued to the appellants have been received back with the report that the addresses were not found.

2. Keeping in view the above, this Court is left with no other option but to dismiss the appeal for non-prosecution, as it appears that the appellant is not interested in pursuing the appeal.

3. Consequently, the appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution. However, liberty is granted to the appellants to move an appropriate application for revival of the present appeal, if so advised, in accordance with law.

4. Pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
