CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KULDEEP TIWARI

Mr. Siddharth Sandu, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Himanshu Gupta, Advocate, (Legal Aid Counsel), for respondent No.5.

KULDEEP TIWARI, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner (son), has approached this Court, by filing the instant writ petition, as cast under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, assailing the order dated 20.02.2020 (Annexure P-5), vide which, respondent No.2, upon an application preferred by the respondent No.5-senior citizen, (Raj Kumar), under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, directed the petitioner to vacate the house in question. Further, an order dated 05.05.2022, (Annexure P-6), is also assailed, whereby, a direction is passed upon respondent No.4 to undertake the eviction process.

2. At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner informs this Court that both, petitioner and his father (respondent No.5), are residing together in the house in question, without any rift. Further, the petitioner is ready and willing to pay maintenance to his father @ Rs.3,000/- per month, in view of the compromise dated 02.04.2019, as already arrived at between them.

3. In response, learned counsel for the senior citizen submits that, in case, the petitioner remits the maintenance amount without any default, the senior citizen would not press for eviction.

4. In view of the abovesaid consensus arrived at between the parties, this Court is not required to delve into the merits of the case. Consequently, the impugned orders are set aside, and the instant writ petition is disposed of, in the following terms:-

- 1) The petitioner shall remit the amount of maintenance, i.e. Rs.3,000/-, by 10th day of every month in the bank account of respondent No.5, till his lifetime.
- 2) In the event of default in payment of maintenance amount, the senior citizen-respondent No.5 shall be entitled to approach the learned Maintenance Tribunal to get the eviction proceedings re-initiated.
