KULDEEP TIWARI, J.(ORAL)

1. At the outset, this Court has put a specific query to the learned counsel for the petitioner so as to how, the present petition is maintainable for seeking damages from a private entity. She opted not to answer the query raised by this Court. Instead, she submitted that after depositing the fee, her children were not allowed to continue, and therefore, damages should be imposed on the private entity, i.e., Amity International School. Since, the query as raised by this Court, was not answered by the petitioner, this Court refrains itself from entertaining the instant petition.

2. Mr. Saini, on the other hand, disputed the facts, and submitted that the fee was never paid by the petitioner. He also stated that an amount of ₹65,592 is due for Avyukt Verma up to 2023, and for the second child, Shiny Verma, ₹69,192 is due up to March 2022, along with ₹38,720 for the period from April to June 2022. He further submitted that the petitioner is in arrears of the said amounts.

3. The issues raised herein involves disputed questions of fact, which cannot be adjudicated through the present writ petition. On these two grounds, this Court find no reason to interfere in the instant petition. Accordingly, the same is dismissed. However, liberty is granted to the petitioner, to avail alternative remedies as may be available in accordance with law.
