... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana & others

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANISHA BATRA

Present: Mr. Sham Lal Saha, Advocate for the petitioner.

Manisha Batra, J. (Oral).

1. This petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of a writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus directing official respondents to get the detenues as well as their vehicles, mentioned in para No. 4 of the petition, released from the illegal detention of respondents No. 4 and 5, who are brick kiln owner and his employee, respectively.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the detenues have been working at the brick kiln of respondent No.4 since December, 2025 without any wages and have been illegally detained by him and are not allowed to leave the same.

3. Notice of motion.

4. Mr. Neeraj Poswal, learned AAG, Haryana, who is present in Court, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State. him

5. This Court has heard learned counsel for the parties and have also gone through the material placed on record.

6. A Division Bench of this Court, while dealing with a similar case in LPA No. 32 of 2013, decided on 11.01.2013, titled as Murti versus The State of Punjab and others, has observed that there can indeed be no doubt that if a labourer has been detained as bonded labour, it amounts to an offence under Sections 16 & 17 of the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976. It was further observed that the District Magistrate concerned is under statutory obligation to hold a fact finding enquiry as and when a complaint alleging violation of the provisions of the aforesaid Act is received. Accordingly, this Criminal Writ Petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2- District Magistrate, Rohtak to treat this petition as a complaint under the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976 and take immediate action in accordance with law for the release of the alleged detainees, within a period of one week from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order along with a copy of the writ petition.
