SANDEEP MOUDGIL, J (ORAL)

The jurisdiction of this Court has been invoked under Article 226 / 227 of the Constitution of India with a prayer seeking issuance of a writ in the nature of Mandamus, directing the Respondents to release the Petitioner's basic pension and all retirement benefits, including gratuity, leave encashment, GPF balance, and all other service-related dues, along with interest 18% per annum from the due dates till actual payment, and to accept the required documents which the Petitioner is continuously trying to submit for his Pension case physically as well as through registered post.

In compliance with the order dated 27.04.2026, the petitioner is present in person, whereas Dr. Jitender Paul Singh, PMO, BBMB, Respondent No. 7, is also present in Court.

The petitioner has signed the requisite documents, which could not be signed earlier, today in Court in the presence of Respondent No. 7 as well as Mr. Sudhanshu Makkar, learned counsel appearing for the respondents/BBMB.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner's grievance still survives and that he was initially reluctant to sign the said documents on the ground that the amount of pension mentioned therein has not been correctly calculated and is on the lower side.

Be that as it may, the petitioner has now signed the documents, which shall facilitate the process of release of the due benefits accruing to him as a matter of legal right.

This Court leaves it open to the petitioner to raise a dispute with regard to the calculation of the amount of basic pension and other retiral benefits. In case the petitioner, upon release of his basic pension and other retiral benefits, is not satisfied with the calculation under any of the heads to which he is entitled upon superannuation, he may submit a comprehensive representation within a period of two weeks from the date of such release, clearly specifying the grounds on which the calculation by the respondents/BBMB is alleged to be incorrect.

Such representation shall be considered and decided in accordance with law by passing a speaking order within a period of six weeks from the date of its receipt. A copy of the speaking order so passed shall be communicated to the petitioner within one week thereafter. In case the petitioner is found entitled to any additional benefits, the same shall be released within a period of two weeks thereafter.

If the petitioner remains aggrieved by the speaking order so passed, he shall be at liberty to challenge the same in accordance with law before the appropriate forum.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner, along with the petitioner appearing in person, submits that he is satisfied with the outcome at this stage and does not wish to press the present petition any further, subject to compliance of the aforesaid directions by the respondents in letter and spirit.

Accordingly, the petition stands disposed of in the aforesaid terms.
