3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is further submitted that, during the course of investigation, the petitioner was found innocent; however, on an application moved by the complainant under Section 190 Cr.P.C./Section 210 BNSS, the learned trial Court, vide order dated 20.12.2025, allowed the said application and summoned the petitioner to face trial. The petitioner undertakes to join and cooperate with the proceedings.

4. Notice of motion.

5. On the asking of the Court, Mr. Rakesh Kumar Jangra, learned AAG, Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State.

6. Mr. Kushager Goyal, Advocate, appears and files his memo of appearance on behalf of the complainant in Court today, and the same is taken on record. He submits that the petitioner played an active role in inflicting injuries upon the complainant.

7. I have heard the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the case file.

8. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly that the petitioner was found innocent during investigation and has been summoned later on only on the application filed by the complainant under Section 190 Cr.P.C., this Court deems it a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, in the event of his surrender before the learned trial Court, he shall be released on bail upon furnishing requisite bail bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned Court.

9. The petition stands disposed of.
