On the last date of hearing, learned counsel for the petitioners states that she has not been able to contact the petitioners for the purpose of settlement. On her request, notices were issued to the petitioners to appear in person before this Forum to explore the possibility of settlement. However, notices issued to the petitioners have been received back with the report that petitioner No.1 has been served through affixation as she refused to accept notice and petitioner No.3 could not be served due to incomplete address whereas notice issued to petitioner No.2 has not been received back.

Today, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that she has no further instructions in this case and this case may be consigned to record room. In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioners, the matter is consigned to the record room, with liberty to the petitioners to revive the same by filing an appropriate application before this Forum, if the need arises.

A copy of this order be sent to the petitioners at the given address as well as to their counsel, so that they could take appropriate steps for revival of the same.
