Present: Mr. Deepak Sabherwal, Advocate for the applicant/respondents.

SHEEL NAGU, CHIEF JUSTICE

CM-9244-2023

Delay of 28 days in preferring the review petition, for reasons mentioned in the application, stands condoned.

CM-9244-2023 is disposed of accordingly.

RA-CW-182-2023

1. Learned counsel for the applicant/respondent is heard.
2. The respondent/review petitioner seeks review of the final order dated 23.03.2023 passed in CWP-12138-2017 pointing out certain palpable errors which, according to the review petitioner, are visible on record, and therefore, the order sought to be reviewed is to be recalled and the civil writ petition needs to be restored to its original number for being heard on merits.

3. A bare perusal of the review petition reveals that instead of pointing out errors which are palpable on record and are visible at first glance, the review petitioner has tried to challenge the merits of the case by going behind the order under review and raising issues which were never raised in the petition.

4. The dispute raised in the review petition ought to be raised before the appellate forum, if so advised, and cannot be made subject matter of a review petition.

5. It is obvious from a bare reading of the order under review and also the decision in the case of 'Hermitage Cooperative Group Housing Society Ltd. vs. State of Haryana & others' (CWP-14184-2013) dated 21.11.2014 that the issue of enhanced compensation was dealt with on merits and therefore, the same cannot be subject matter in a review petition.

6. In the absence of any palpable error visible on the face of the record, this Court rejects this review petition without costs.
