Registry is directed to tag the same at appropriate place with the paper-book.

Main cases(s)

1. By way of this common order, present petitions are being disposed of.
2. Present petitions have been filed under Section 483 of the BNSS, seeking regular bail in FIR No. 87 dated 20.11.2021, registered under Sections 392 and 394 of the IPC (with Sections 395, 450, and 120-B IPC added subsequently) at Police Station Mansa Devi Complex, District Panchkula.
3. Learned State counsel submits that material witnesses, including the injured, have been examined, and all of them have supported the prosecution case by identifying the accused in the present case.
4. Learned counsel for the complainant submits that accused in the present case were domestic servants and that their permanent place of residence is in Nepal. It is contended that, if released on bail, there is likelihood of their absconding.
5. In view of the above, present petitions are disposed of with a direction to conclude the trial within a period of six months by recording the remaining evidence.
