Versus

Divisional Commissioner, Ambala Division, Ambala and others

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSH BUNGER

Present: Mr. Amarjit Singh Virk, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Abhimanyu Antil, DAG, Haryana

Mr. Sukhwinder S. Chatrath, Advocate for respondents No.4 to 7.

HARSH BUNGER J. (ORAL)

Prayer in the present writ petition, filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, inter alia, is for issuance of a writ in the nature of Certiorari for setting aside order dated 06.03.2024 (Annexure P-3) passed by Divisional Commissioner, Ambala Division, Ambala Cantt.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the learned Commissioner has passed the impugned order dated 06.03.2024 (Annexure P-3) without issuing any notice to the present petitioner which is clearly in violation of the principles of natural justice. He further submits that similar order has been passed by the learned Commissioner in another revision petition inter se the parties, however, in one of the matters, the petitioner had filed a writ petition before this Court (CWP No.11373-2024), which came to be disposed of vide order dated 23.09.2025, whereby order dated 06.03.2024 passed by the learned Commissioner has been set aside and the matter has been remanded to the learned Divisional Commissioner, Ambala for deciding the revision petition afresh, after affording due opportunity of hearing to all concerned parties and by passing a speaking order.

3. On the basis of aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the similar order as the order dated 23.09.2025 passed in CWP No.11373-2024, be passed in the present matter also and the matter be remanded to the learned Commissioner for deciding the revision petition afresh, after affording due opportunity of hearing to all concerned parties and for passing a speaking order.

4. On the other hand, learned counsel appearing for the respective respondents have not disputed the aforesaid contentions raised on behalf of learned counsel for the petitioner and have very fairly stated that in fact the matter is required to be remanded to the learned Commissioner for deciding the same afresh, after affording due opportunity of hearing to all concerned parties.

5. Keeping in view the aforesaid fair stand taken by learned counsel for the respective respondents, the impugned order dated 06.03.2024 (Annexure P-3) passed by the learned Divisional Commissioner, Ambala, is set aside, and the matter is remanded to the Divisional Commissioner, Ambala, to decide the revision petition filed by respondent No.4-Salwinder Singh and others afresh, after affording due opportunity of hearing to all concerned parties and by passing a speaking order.

their respective counsel(s) before the learned Divisional Commissioner, Ambala, on 07.07.2026, the date already fixed in the remanded matter.

7. The present writ petition is accordingly, disposed of in the aforestated terms.

8. All the pending application(s), if any, shall also stand closed.
