CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY VASHISTH

Present: Ms. Himani Anand, Advocate for the petitioner
(in CRM-M-24592-2025)

Mr. Sanjeev Majra, Advocate for the petitioner
(in CRM-M-33313-2025).

Mr. Amish Sharma, Asst. A.G., Haryana

SANJAY VASHISTH, J. (Oral)

1. By way of this common order, the aforementioned petitions are being disposed of.

2. Present petitions have been filed under Section 483 of BNSS, seeking regular bail in FIR No. 55 dated 25.01.2025, under Sections 22(c) and 29-61-85 of NDPS Act, registered at Police Station Krishna Gate Thanesar, District Kurukshetra.

3. As per the FIR, on the basis of secret information, a raid was conducted at the premises of Rajnish Kumar @ Rinku, from whose possession 220 strips of Parvion Spas (24 capsules each), totaling 5,280 capsules containing Dicyclomine Hydrochloride, Tramadol Hydrochloride and Acetaminophen, were recovered. The recovered strips were of Batch No. C-241216, manufactured in December 2024 and expiring in November 2026.

During investigation, it was revealed that the manufacturing firm, namely M/s Soul Healthcare Pvt. Ltd., Kashipur (Uttarakhand), had manufactured 4,95,600 capsules of Tramadol of the same batch and supplied the same to M/s Mangaldeep Trading Company, allegedly belonging to accused Arun Kumar @ Khoo. It is further alleged that these capsules were subsequently sold illegally in the market by the other accused persons, namely Amit Gupta, Ashu Thapa, Arun Kumar @ Khoo, Ajay Prajapati and Honey Kumar Garg.

4. In the comprehensive status report dated 27.11.2025, the State has explained that accused Arun Kumar @ Khoo created a fake firm in the name and style of M/s Mangaldeep Trading Company for the purpose of illegal sale and purchase of intoxicant capsules. A huge quantity of capsules, i.e. 4,95,600 capsules manufactured by M/s Soul Healthcare Pvt. Ltd., was allegedly sold fraudulently to various medical agencies, including M/s Hanumat Medical Agency, of which Ashish Kumar is the proprietor and has been cited as a witness. There is material on record suggesting that the said firm was actually being run by Honey Kumar Garg.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that petitioners were neither named in the FIR nor arrested from the spot. Their names surfaced only on the basis of the disclosure statement of co-accused Rajnish Kumar, which is not admissible in evidence. It is further submitted that nothing has been recovered from the petitioners and no independent incriminating material has been placed on record against them.

6. Learned State counsel has filed an affidavit of Jagbir Singh, HPS, DSP, HSNCB, Panchkula, in Court today. Same is taken on record. While opposing the prayer for bail, learned State counsel submits that petitioner-Amrish Kumar had supplied 7,200 Tramadol capsules to accused-Rajnish Kumar @ Rinku through co-accused Pawan Yadav and Vikas, which were allegedly purchased from accused Sumit s/o Ramphal.

Learned State counsel further submits that petitioner-Sumit s/o Surender Kumar had purchased 720 Tramadol capsules from co-accused Rajnish Kumar @ Rinku for a sum of ₹9,000/-.

7. Learned State counsel also submits that the call detail records show that petitioner-Amrish Kumar (in CRM-M-24592-2025) had frequent telephonic conversations with the other co-accused, namely Pawan, Vikas, Sumit s/o Ramphal, Irfan and Rajnish Kumar @ Rinku. Further submits that petitioner-Sumit s/o Surender Kumar (in CRM-M-33313-2025) had frequent telephonic conversations with co-accused Rajnish Kumar @ Rinku from 01.01.2025 to 25.01.2025, as reflected in the status report dated 01.09.2025 filed in CRM-M-33313-2025.

8. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have carefully perused the paper-book along with the documents appended thereto, including the status reports.

9. Considering that the prime allegation against the petitioners is based primarily on disclosure statements and call detail records, that the petitioners are not named in the FIR, that no recovery has been effected from the petitioners, and that no money trail has been established linking the petitioners with the alleged illegal transactions, this Court finds merit in the prayer for bail. Accordingly, present petitions are allowed.

Petitioners are ordered to be released on bail, subject to their furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/ Chief Judicial Magistrate/Illaq Magistrate/ Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case.

10. Any of the discussion done and recorded hereabove, shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on the facts of the case. Therefore, trial Court is expected to decide the case by taking an independent view, on the basis of evidence available on record, as expeditiously as possible in accordance with law.

11. It is further made clear that if, in future, the petitioners are found to be directly involved in similar activities, the prosecution would be at liberty to seek cancellation of bail.

12. Petitions stand disposed of.

13. A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of another connected case.
