CRM-19707-2026

1. This is an application, under Rule 3-(A)(1) of Chapter 6, Part-B, Volume-V, of the High Court Rules and Orders, seeking leave to appeal, act or plead before this Court.

2. For the reasons mentioned in the application, the same is allowed as prayed for.

Main case

1. The petitioner has filed the second petition under Section 483 of B.N.S.S with a prayer to grant regular bail to him in case FIR No.162, dated 09.08.2024, under Sections 115(2),126(2),190,191(2) 351(3),117(2),109(1) and 61(2) of B.N.S, registered at Police Station City Safidon, District Jind (Annexure P-1).

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner was initially arrested on 30.09.2024 and he remained in custody for about 10 months. Vide order dated 17.07.2025 in CRM-M-36325-2025 (Annexure P-2), the petitioner was granted the concession of regular bail by this Court. Learned counsel further contends that after passing the order, the petitioner was regularly appearing before the Trial Court and never misused the concession of bail, however, on 25.09.2025, the petitioner was suffering from severe fever, cold and infection and was under treatment at Civil Hospital, Jind. He refers to the medical record dated 25.09.2025 (Annexure P-4) in this regard. Due to non-appearance of the petitioner, the Trial Court had cancelled the bail and the bail bonds and surety bonds were ordered to be forfeited to the State and the petitioner was ordered to be summoned through non-bailable warrants of arrest. He further contends that the petitioner was again taken into custody on 31.03.2026 and is in custody since then. He further contends that in the event of bail, the petitioner shall appear on each and every date of hearing, before the Trial Court and shall not absent himself during the Court proceedings.

3. Notice of motion.

4. Mr. Parmod Kumar, AAG, Haryana, who is present in the Court, accepts notice on behalf of respondent-State.

5. Learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner.

6. I have heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and perused the record.

7. From the record, it is apparent that the petitioner was regularly appearing before the Trial Court, after the grant of concession of bail by this Court, however, only on one date i.e. 25.09.2025, he could not appear before the Trial Court, due to the fact that he was under medical treatment. Thus, taking a lenient view of the matter, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing bail bonds and surety to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court/ Duty Magistrate/Chief Judicial Magistrate.

8. At the time of furnishing of bail bonds, the petitioner shall also file an affidavit before the concerned Court that he shall continue to appear before the Court on each and every date of hearing and shall not absent himself during the court proceedings, except with prior permission of the Court.

9. The Trial Court/Duty Magistrate shall also be at liberty to impose any other conditions, as it deems fit in the peculiar facts and circumstances of case.

10. The petition stands allowed in the above terms.
