

no objection to the quashing of the present FIR and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom. Learned counsel submitted that in the present matter, a cancellation report was also filed, but the same was not accepted by the Illaqa Magistrate and the further investigation was ordered. In support of his contentions, learned counsel placed reliance upon the ratio of law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Mrs. Shakuntala Sawhney Vs. Mrs. Kaushalya and others 1980 (1) SCC 63 as well as the judgments passed by this Court in Kulwinder Singh Vs. State of Punjab 2007 (3) RCR (Crl.) 1052 Parambir Singh Gill vs. Malkiat Kaur, 2010(1) RCR (Criminal) 256; Gurtej Singh vs. State of Haryana and another, 2010(3) RCR (Criminal) 660 and Sarabjeet Singh vs. State of Punjab, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 479.

4. Notice of motion.

5. Mr. Anup Singh, AAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.1-State and Ms. Srishti Shukla, Advocate has filed Power of Attorneys on behalf of respondent Nos.2 to 4. The same are taken on record. Learned counsel for respondent Nos.2 to 4 has admitted the factum of compromise effected between the parties and submitted that respondent Nos.2 to 4 have no objection, if the FIR registered against the petitioner be quashed.

6. This Court has heard learned counsel for the parties.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner(s) and for respondent Nos.2 to 4 are ad idem that in view of the settlement effected between the parties, the present petition deserves to be accepted. It has also come on record that the aforesaid compromise is genuine and has been effected voluntarily, without any undue influence or coercion.

8. In view of above, nothing remains to be adjudicated further in the present case. Thus, continuation of the criminal proceedings between the parties would be a futile exercise and sheer wastage of time of the Court and thus, amounts to abuse of process of law.

9. Keeping in view the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case and that the compromise has been effected between the parties; cancellation report was also filed in the present matter but the same was not accepted by the Illaqa Magistrate and further investigation was ordered and having regard to the law laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543 and Five Judges Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, this petition is allowed and FIR bearing No.0258 dated 21.12.2025 registered under Sections 115(2), 351(2), 191(3) & 190 of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 at Police Station Sadar Khanna, District Ludhiana and all the subsequent proceedings are hereby quashed qua the petitioners.
