CRM-M-26532-2026 (O & M)
Date of decision: 15.05.2026

UDAI LAL DANGI

... Petitioner

VERSUS

STATE OF HARYANA

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASJIT SINGH BEDI

Present: Mr. Parvinder Moar, Advocate with Mr. Vikas Singh Chawra, Advocate and Mr. Tejas Ahlawat, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vipul Sherwal, Asstt. A.G., Haryana.

JASJIT SINGH BEDI, J.

The prayer in this 2nd petition under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023 (Section 439 Cr.P.C.) is for the grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case bearing FIR No.168 dated 19.04.2024 registered under Sections 15(c) and 29 of the NDPS Act at Police Station Dabawali Sadar, Dabawali.

2. The brief facts of the case are that Hoshiar Singh (granted bail vide order dated 06.08.2025 passed in CRM-M-20236-2025) son of Shri Bhawar Singh and Gyarsi Lal @ Garsi Lal (granted bail vide order dated 06.08.2025 passed in CRM-M-55988-2025) son of Surja Ram were apprehended while they were driving a trucking bearing No.RJ-09GC/0219 along with 70 Kgs poppy husk.

3. The arrested accused Hoshiar Singh and Gyarsi Lal @ Garsi Lal named one Gobind Singh @ Gobindo (granted bail vide order dated 06.08.2025 passed in CRM-M-54925-2024) son of Mamraj Singh @ Mamra as the person who had handed over the truck along with the contraband to them.

On 02.06.2024, Gobind Singh @ Gobindo son of Mamraj Singh @ Mamra was arrested. On 03.06.2024, he suffered his disclosure statement admitting to have committed the offence in question. He suffered yet another disclosure statement demarcating the place where accused Hemraj @ Pappu handed over truck bearing No.RJ-09GB/4653 along with the contraband and where he loaded the contraband from Rajasthan to truck bearing No.RJ09GB/4653 due to the technical fault in truck bearing No.RJ09-GC/0219. He also got recovered Rs.10,000/- from his house.

During investigation it came on record that Uday Lal Dangi (petitioner) and Hemraj @ Pappu were indulging in the sale, purchase and transportation of the narcotics substances along with the other accused. It also transpired that both the trucks were registered in the name of the petitioner and that Gobind used to transport the contraband on the asking of the petitioner and Hemraj @ Pappu thus, establishing that the accused persons were running a syndicate dabbling in the business of narcotics substances where the petitioner and Hemraj @ Pappu were the main suppliers.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. He has not been named in the FIR but only in the disclosure statement of some of the arrested accused which has no evidentiary value. Merely because the vehicles were in his name does not establish his culpability as the drivers were dealing in contraband in their individual capacity. As the petitioner is in custody since 28.08.2025 but none of the 26 prosecution witnesses has been examined so far, he is entitled to the grant of bail even though there is one other case registered against him under the NDPS Act. Reliance is placed on the judgments in the cases of Tofan Singh Versus State of Tamil Nadu, 2020 AIR (Supreme Court) 5592, Rakesh Kumar Singla Versus Union of India, 2021(1) RCR (Criminal) 704, Surinder Kumar Khanna Versus Intelligence Officer Directorate of Revenue Intelligence, 2018(3) RCR (Criminal) 954, State by (NCB) Bengaluru Versus Pallulabid Ahmad Arimutta & Anr. 2022(1) RCR (Criminal) 762, Sanjeev Chandra Agarwal & Anr. Versus Union of India 2021(4) RCR (Criminal) 590, Vijay Singh Versus The State of Haryana, bearing Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.(s).1266/2023 decided on 17.05.2023, State of Haryana versus Samarth Kumar 2022 (3) RCR (Criminal) 991 and Vikrant Singh Versus State of Punjab, CRM-M-39657-2020 decided on 06.04.2022.”, wherein it has been held that the accused can be granted the concession of bail where he has been named in the disclosure statement of his co-accused and there is no other corroborative evidence against the accused.

5. The learned counsel for the respondent-State, on the other hand, contends that both the vehicles used in the commission of the offence stand in the name of the petitioner. It does not stand to reason that the petitioner was unaware of the acts of his co-accused/drivers. During the course of investigation it has come on record that the petitioner is the main accused along with one Hemraj @ Pappu. Further, he is a habitual offender with multiple other cases registered against him. Therefore, in view of the material available on record, he is not entitled to the concession of bail.

6. I have heard the learned counsel for both the parties at length.

7. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Haryana Versus Samarth Kumar 2022 (3) RCR (Criminal) 991, held as under:-

“4. The High Court decided to grant pre-arrest bail to the respondents on the only ground that no recovery was effected from the respondents and that they had been implicated only on the basis of the disclosure statement of the main accused Dinesh Kumar. Therefore, reliance was placed by the High Court in the majority judgment of this Court in Tofan Singh v. State of Tamil Nadu reported in (2021) 4 SCC 1.

5. But, it is contended by the learned Additional Advocate General appearing on behalf of the State of Haryana that on the basis of the anticipatory bail granted to the respondents, the Special Court was constrained to grant regular bail even to the main accused-Dinesh Kumar and he jumped bail. Fortunately, the main accused-Dinesh Kumar has again been apprehended. According to the learned Additional Advocate General, the respondent in the second of these appeals is also a habitual offender.

6. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent in the first of these Appeals contends that the State is guilty of suppression of the vital fact that the respondent was granted regular bail after the charge-sheet was filed and that therefore, nothing survives in the appeal. But, we do not agree.

7. The order of the Special Court granting regular bail to the respondents shows that the said order was passed in pursuance of the anticipatory bail granted by the High Court. Therefore, the same cannot be a ground to hold that the present appeals have become infructuous.

8. In cases of this nature, the respondents may be able to take advantage of the decision in Tofan Singh v. State of Tamil Nadu (supra), perhaps at the time of arguing the regular bail application or at the time of final hearing after conclusion of the trial.

9. To grant anticipatory bail in a case of this nature is not really warranted. Therefore, we are of the view that the High Court fell into an error in granting anticipatory bail to the respondents.

10. In view of the above, the appeals are allowed. The impugned orders are set-aside. As a consequence, the Appellant-State is entitled to take steps, in accordance with law.

8. In Vijay Singh Versus The State of Haryana, bearing Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.(s).1266/2023 decided on 17.05.2023, it was held as under:-

“The petitioner is alleged to have committed offences under Sections 15 and 29 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (hereinafter called the NDPS Act”. His application for anticipatory bail was rejected by the High Court. The allegations in the FIR are that 1.7 Kg of Poppy Straw (Doda Post) was recovered from the co-accused. The petitioner concededly was not present at the spot but was named by the co-accused. That apart there is no other material to implicate the petitioner. The prosecution urges that another case with allegations of commission of offence under the NDPS Act are pending against the petitioner. It is not denied that in those proceedings he was granted bail.

Having regard to these circumstances, the petitioner is directed to the enlarged on anticipatory bail, subject to such terms and conditions as the trial Court may impose.

The petition is allowed.

All pending applications are disposed of.”

9. This Court in the case of Vikrant Singh Versus State of Punjab, CRM-M-39657-2020 decided on 06.04.2022, held as under:-

“It is not in dispute that the petitioners have not been named in the FIR. No recovery has been effected from the petitioners and the alleged recovery has been effected from two co-accused Rakesh Sharma and Ravdeep Singh alias Sheru. The petitioners are sought to be implicated solely on the basis of the disclosure statement made by the co-accused Rakesh Sharma and Ravdeep Singh @ Sheru and even after the petitioners were arrayed as accused in pursuance of the disclosure statements, no recovery had been made from the petitioners.

The petitioners have been in custody since 06.11.2020 (Vikrant Singh), 05.12.2020 (Subash Chander) and 23.04.2021 (Davinder Singh) and challan in the present case has already been presented and there are 32 witnesses, out of whom only one has been examined and thus, the trial is likely to take time on account of Covid-19 Pandemic. The petitioners are not involved in any other case. With respect to the call details, suffice to say that no dates on which the said calls had been allegedly made by the coaccused, Rakesh Sharma and Ravdeep Singh alias Sheru to the petitioners or vice-versa have been mentioned in the affidavit or in the report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. Moreover, even the transcript of the said conversations are not a part of the record under Section 173 Cr.P.C. A Division Bench of this Court in Narcotics Control Bureau's case (supra), was pleased to observe as under:-

Still further, no conversation detail between accused Ramesh Kumar Patil and accused Sandeep has been produced by the prosecution. Mere call details is not sufficient to prove that Sandeep accused was also involved in the business of narcotic drugs or he had any connected with Ramesh Kumar Patil.

In view of the above, no case is made out for grant of leave to appeal against the acquittal of Sandeep accused.”

In judgment of the Gujarat High Court in Yash Jayeshbhai Champaklal Shah's case (supra), it has been observed as under:-

“Having heard learned advocates for the appearing parties, it emerges on record that the applicant is not found in possession of any contraband article. Over and above that, the call data records may reveal that in an around the time of incident, he was in contact with the co-accused who were found in possession of contraband. Since there is no recording of conversation in between the accused, mere contacts with the co-accused who were found in possession cannot be treated to be a corroborative material in absence of substantive material found against the accused.”

A perusal of the above judgment would show that without the transcript of the conversations exchanged between the co-accused, mere call details would not be considered to be corroborative material in absence of substantive material found against the accused. In the present case, there is no other material against the petitioners.

Keeping in view the above-said facts and circumstances, as well as law laid down in the judgments noticed hereinabove, the present petitions are allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate and subject to their not being required in any other case.

10. This Court in the case of Soni Singh @ Chamkaur Sahib, CRM-M-31645-2022, decided on 20.10.2022, held as under:-

“The Counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner is not named in the FIR nor in the secret information. He has been named only in the disclosure statement of his co-accused which is inadmissible in evidence and even otherwise since the recovery effected from him of 3 Kgs of Poppy Husk is of non commercial quantity, therefore the rigors of Section 37 of NDPS Act did not apply to the petitioner. Since the petitioner was in custody since 26.05.2022 and the trial was not likely to be concluded in the near future, he deserved the concession of bail.

The Counsel for the State on the other hand contends that the petitioner is a trafficker along with his co-accused. As per the disclosure statement 200 Kgs of Poppy Husk was to be supplied to the petitioner. Further he is involved in two other cases under the NDPS Act as also one case under the Excise Act and, therefore, did not deserve the concession of bail in view of his antecedents.

I have heard counsel for both the sides at length.

Admittedly, the petitioner in the present case is named in the disclosure statement of the arrested accused. Subsequently thereto 3Kgs of Poppy Husk was recovered at his instance which is a non commercial quantity. It may be relevant to mention here that limitations to the grant of bail under Section 37 of the NDPS Act are in addition to those prescribed under Cr.PC or any other law inforce on the grant of bail as has been set out by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satpal Singh Vs. State of Punjab 2018(5) RCR (Criminal). 152. In the present case, the petitioner is involved in two other cases under the NDPS Act. Thus, as he is a habitual offender, he is not entitled to the grant of bail even under Section 439 Cr.PC keeping in view his antecedents. Even otherwise, assuming that the rigors of Section 37 of the NDPS Act did not apply to the petitioner, that by itself would not ipso facto lead to the grant of bail to the petitioner.

In view of the above discussion, I find no merit in the present petition and the same is therefore dismissed.

(emphasis supplied)

11. This Court in the case of Ranjit Singh Versus State of Punjab, CRM-M-25526-2023, decided on 17.07.2023, held as under:-

“8. Coming back to the facts of the present case, it is pertinent to note here that other than the instant FIR in which the petitioner has been nominated as an accused on the basis of the disclosure statement of the arrested accused, the petitioner is also an accused in two other cases under the NDPS Act. In addition, he had been an accused in three other cases, though he has been acquitted in the said cases. It is highly unlikely that the petitioner would have been implicated in multiple FIRs at the whims and fancies of the Investigating Agency.

9. When there are multiple FIRs against a person over a significant period of time (in this case 18 years), then even though he may have been acquitted in some of those cases, the twin conditions as envisaged under Section 37 of the NDPS Act that he has not committed an offence and was not likely to commit an offence cannot be satisfied.

10. Keeping in view the conduct of the petitioner and his criminal antecedents, his custodial interrogation would certainly be necessary to effect necessary recoveries and to take the investigation to its logical conclusion.

11. In view of the above, I find no merit in the present petition. Therefore, the same stands dismissed.

12. In Samarth Kumar (supra) the Hon'ble Supreme Court had clearly held that an accused who had been named in the disclosure statement of a co-accused was not entitled to the grant of anticipatory bail but could be granted regular bail. However, in Vijay Singh (supra) a somewhat contrary view was taken and the accused therein was granted the concession of anticipatory bail even though he had been an accused in another case under the NDPS Act in which he was on bail. In Vikrant Singh (supra) this Court held that where an accused had been named in the disclosure statement of his co-accused and there were CDRs/WhatsApp calls/chats between the arrested accused and the person named in a disclosure statement then in the absence of the contents of the conversation/chats bail could not be denied to the said accused. In Soni Singh @ Chamkaur Sahib (supra) and Ranjit Singh (supra) it has been held by this Court that where there were multiple FIRs against an accused over a period of time then, even though he had been named in a disclosure statement, he was not entitled to the concession of bail.

13. Coming back to the facts and circumstances of the present case, other than the disclosure statement of his co-accused, it is a matter of record that the petitioner is the owner of the truck from which the contraband was recovered. Other than the instant FIR, the petitioner is involved in multiple other cases. It is highly unlikely that the petitioner would have been implicated in multiple FIRs at the whims and fancies of the investigating agency. The details of the cases registered against the petitioner are as under:-

Sr. No.	FIR No.	Dated	Under Sections	Police Station	Status
1.	FIR No.112	26.04.2009	302/120-B IPC and Arms Act	Dabok	Under-trial
2.	FIR No.260	15.08.2010	324/323/34/341 IPC	Dabok	Convicted
3.	FIR No.191	08.06.2011	323/341/34 IPC	Dabok	Released on probation on 12.09.2019

10.	FIR No.116	14.06.2016	19/54 Abkari Adhiniyam (Excise Act)	Klewa	Under-trial
11.	FIR No.142	01.06.2015	14, 19/54, 54, 54a Abkari Adhiniyam (Excise Act)	Manohar Pura Jaipur	Status nil
12.	FIR No.268	30.07.2012	4/24 Arms Act	Dabok	Under-trial
13.	FIR No.191	08.06.2011	323, 341, 34 IPC	Dabok	Convicted
14.	FIR No.260	15.08.2010	323, 324, 341, 34 IPC	Dabok	Convicted
15.	FIR No.112	26.04.2009	302, 120-B IPC, 4/24 of Arms Act	Dabok, Udaipur	Under-trial

14. In fact, when there are multiple FIRs against an accused over a significant period of time, then the twin conditions as envisaged under Section 37 of the NDPS Act that he has not committed the offence and was not likely to commit one in future cannot be satisfied. Further, the limitation to the grant of bail under Section 37 of the NDPS Act is in addition to those limitations prescribed under the Cr.P.C. or any other law in force on the grant of bail. Thus, a habitual offender is not entitled to the grant of bail even under the provisions of the Cr.P.C. keeping in view his criminal antecedents even though, his co-accused who are similarly situated may have been granted the concession of either anticipatory bail or regular bail.

15. Further, this is 2nd bail application on behalf of the petitioner. The detail of his earlier bail application is as under:-

Sr. No.	Bail Application	Date of Decision
1.	CRM-M-70421-2025	Dismissed as withdrawn on 17.02.2026

16. There are no change in circumstances entitling the petitioner to the grant of bail since the withdrawal of his first bail petition.

17. In view of the above, I find no merit in the present petition. Therefore, the same stands dismissed.

18. The pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of accordingly.
