CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE SHALINI SINGH NAGPAL

Present: Mr. L.S. Mann, Advocate for the petitioner.

1. Petitioner seeks regular bail in case arising out of FIR No.137 dated 01.06.2025, under Sections 75, 78, 332(c), 126(2) and 351(2) of BNS, Police Station Siwani, district Bhiwani, Haryana.

This is the first petition seeking regular bail.

2. Complainant reported that her husband was employed in Navy while she was a Teacher in School. In April-May, she received a call from Amit Gahlot, who initially started talking to her on pretext of wrong number but she did not respond. Accused represented that he was resident of Dwarka, Delhi. On 23.05.2025, he entered her house when she was alone, introduced himself as Amit Gahlot from Dwarka, Delhi, who had been talking to her and molested her. On 23.05.2025 at about 7:30 AM when she left her house for school, accused parked his car No.DL-10-CD-7602 in front of her vehicle saying that he wanted to talk to her. When she ignored him and started heading towards school, he followed her to the school and on the way, threatened to kill her if she did not oblige.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner was in custody for the last one month and eight days. All offences for which he had been booked were punishable with imprisonment upto 2-3 years. The story as narrated by the complainant was quite unbelievable. Petitioner had clean antecedents and deserved to be released on regular bail.

4. Learned State counsel has filed the custody certificate dated 12.05.2026, which is taken on record. He has opposed the prayer for regular bail submitting that in her statement under Section 183 of BNSS, prosecutrix fully supported the case and in view of the nature of allegations, the bail application be declined.

All the offences under Sections 75, 78, 332(c), 126(2) and 351(2) of BNS, are punishable with imprisonment for 2-3 years. The nature and substance of allegations against the petitioner and his clean antecedents do not justify his incarceration through out the trial. Petitioner has a fixed abode and there is no reason to suspect that he would evade trial.

6. Therefore, without commenting on merits of the case, the petition is allowed. Petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned.
