Tribunal concerned, had directed the respondent No.3, to deposit Rs.8,000/- per month, in the bank account of the petitioner, as maintenance.

3. At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner on instructions from grand-son of the petitioner apprises this Court that during the pendency of the instant writ petition, unfortunately, the demise of the petitioner/senior citizen, has occurred, and therefore, the prayer made through the instant writ petition, has lost its significance, and he does not wish to press the same. However, he submits that respondent No.3, is under legal obligation to deposit the maintenance amount till the death of the petitioner/senior citizen.
