1. This petition has been filed under Section 483 Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita 2023 (erstwhile 439 Cr.P.C.) for grant of Regular Bail in case arising out of FIR no.303 dated 18.12.2025 U/S 115 (2), 117 (1), 126(2), 351 (2), 191 (3), 125, 109 of BNS, 2023; Offences u/s 238 of BNS, 2023 and 25 and 27 of Arms Act added subsequently P.S. Sadar, Ludhiana., (pari materia to Sections 323, 325, 341, 506, 148, 338, 307, 201 IPC) Annexure P-1. On the oral request of the ld. counsel for the petitioner, Section 190 BNS is added in headnote as well prayer clause of the petitioner.

petitioner's father, who is not an applicant before this Court, fired gunshots towards the complainant party during the same occurrence.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case on account of political rivalry. He further submits that the occurrence has resulted in a version and a cross-version, indicating that both sides have levelled allegations against each other. It is contended that the FIR has been registered with an ulterior motive to settle personal scores and is a consequence of political vendetta at the instance of the ruling dispensation. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner has been in custody since 19.12.2025 and, therefore, prays for the grant of regular bail.

4. Notice of motion.

5. Mr. Sandeep Kumar, DAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent–State and has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of regular bail on the ground that the allegations against the petitioner are serious in nature. He has filed the custody certificate of the petitioner in Court today, which is taken on record. As per the custody certificate, the petitioner is in custody for the last 04 months and 28 days, he is not involved in any other case.

6. Mr. Amanjot Singh, Advocate appears and filed his Vakalatnama on behalf of the complainant in the Court today and the same is taken on record. He has vehemently opposed the prayer made by ld. counsel for the petitioner.

7. I have heard the submissions made by the parties and gone through the record.

8. After hearing the rival contentions and considering the fact that in the case in hand, the petitioner is in custody for the 04 months and 28 days; although the petitioner is not involved in any other case coupled with the fact that the trial is likely to take considerable time, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose would be served by further incarceration of the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner is granted the concession of regular bail during the pendency of the trial.

9. Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the instant petition is allowed. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on his furnishing requisite bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned.

10. Nothing discussed hereinabove shall be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.

11. It is clarified that if while on bail so granted through the instant order, the petitioner is found indulged in any other criminal case/activity, it shall be open to the State to seek cancellation of his bail.
