Mr. Rajeev Malhotra, Deputy Advocate General, Haryana.

Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

1. In the present appeal, the challenge is to the order dated 07.07.2022 passed in CWP-12319-2022 by the learned Single Judge by which, the writ petition filed by the appellant has been dismissed.

2. Learned counsel for the appellant argues that without going through the record, finding has been recorded by the learned Single Judge solely on the basis of presumption that objections filed against partition proceedings were taken into consideration and amended Naksha Kha was called for. Learned counsel for the appellant further submits that before this Court in appeal, the learned State counsel had brought the record, which could not prove that the objections filed were taken into consideration.

LPA-800-2022 (O&M)

3. Learned counsel for the appellant argues that matter needs to be remanded back to the learned Single Judge for fresh adjudication on the basis of the record.

4. The learned counsel for the respondents do not oppose the prayer that the impugned order dated 07.07.2022 passed by the learned Single Judge be set aside and the case be remanded back to the learned Single Judge for fresh adjudication based upon the record brought before the Court.

5. Keeping in view the agreement entered into between the parties, the impugned order dated 07.07.2022 passed by the learned Single Judge is set aside and the case is remanded back to the learned Single Judge for proper adjudication based upon the record.

6. The present appeal is allowed accordingly.

7. The parties are directed to appear before the learned Single Judge on 09.03.2026.
