...Petitioner

Vs.

STATE OF HARYANA AND ORS.

...Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAGMOHAN BANSAL

Present:- Mr. Imtiyaz Hussain, Advocate and Mr. Ch. Arjudin, Advocate for the petitioners

Mr. Deepak Vashisht, DAG Haryana

Mr. Akshay Kumar Dahiya, Advocate for respondent-HVPNL

JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J. (ORAL)

1. The petitioners through instant petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India are seeking issuance of an appropriate order/direction restraining the respondents from laying proposed High Tension ('HT') electricity line.

2. As per pleadings, the petitioners claim that they are owners of land in possession and have constructed residential houses and cattle sheds. The respondent is going to lay HT electricity transmission line adjacent to their residential houses and cattle sheds. They have raised objections to proposed alignment and requested to adopt alternative route/alignment. The respondents may be directed to decide their representation dated 24.02.2026.

- 3. Learned counsel for respondent-HVPNL submits that the authorities would consider petitioners’ representation dated 24.02.2026 and pass an order within six weeks from today.
- 4. Learned counsel for the petitioners agrees to the aforesaid arrangement.
- 5. In the wake of statement of both sides, the petition stands disposed of.
- 6. Pending application(s), if any, stands disposed of.
