N.S.SHEKHAWAT, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 482 of the BNSS, with a prayer to grant her anticipatory bail in case in FIR No.48 dated 24.05.2025 registered under Sections 15, 25, 29, 61 and 85 of the NDPS Act and Section 111(2) of the BNS at Police Station Mehna, District Moga. (Annexure P-1)

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that as per the case of the prosecution, Jaspal Singh alias Jassa and Jasvir Singh alias Daddi apprehended by the police while they were carrying 50 kgs of poppy husk in a Verna car. The petitioner was neither named in the FIR nor there was any averment, which connected him with the commission of the crime in any manner. Learned counsel further contends that Jaspal Singh alias Jassa and Jasvir Singh alias Daddi have already been granted the concession of regular bail by this Court. He further contends that Manjinder Singh @ Sonu similarly placed co-accused has already been granted the concession of anticipatory bail.

3. On the other hand, learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that there are serious allegations against the petitioner and the petitioner is not entitled for the concession of anticipatory bail.

4. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

5. In the present case, 50 kgs of poppy husk was recovered from Jaspal Singh alias Jassa and Jasvir Singh alias Daddi and both the co-accused have been granted the concession of bail by this Court. The petitioner has been nominated as an accused on the basis of the statement suffered by her co-accused and the admissibility of such statement is yet to be decided by the Court. In the considered opinion of the Court, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner may not be required.

6. Without commenting any further on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed. The petitioner is granted concession of anticipatory bail, subject to the conditions as provided under Section 482(2) of the BNSS. It will be open for the Investigating Officer to call the petitioner to join investigation, if so required, by issuing a written notice in this regard and he shall abide by the conditions mentioned in Section 482(2) of the BNSS.
