CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA
HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SUKHVINDER KAUR

Present: Mr. Abhijeet Singh Rawaley, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Karan Sharma, DAG, Haryana.

ANOOP CHITKARA, J. (Oral)

Petitioner seeks parole to attend the wedding of his sister.

We have perused the petition as well as the documents annexed therewith. Though it has been pleaded that the petitioner had sought parole for attending the marriage of his sister, no document has been placed on record to substantiate the said assertion.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that he is not having any copy and has been informed verbally that an application for parole had been submitted for attending the marriage of the petitioner's sister.

Once the petitioner had applied for the parole it is for him to demonstrate that the rejection of the parole which was applied to attend the wedding of the sister. A perusal of the index as well as the paper-book reveals that no order rejecting parole has been annexed.

On a specific query put by this Court as to whether any order rejecting parole has been passed, counsel for the petitioner submits that it might have been rejected because nothing has been conveyed to the petitioner.

On the face of it, there is no lis before this Court and consequently, the present petition is liable to be dismissed. However, considering the submission that the marriage of the petitioner's sister is scheduled to be solemnized on 18.06.2026, liberty is granted to the petitioner to submit a fresh application seeking parole. In the event such application is filed on or before 02.06.2026, the competent authority shall consider and decide the same, in accordance with law and the applicable rules, on or before 10.06.2026.

With the aforesaid observations, the present petition stands dismissed.
