HARPREET SINGH BRAR, J (Oral):

1. The present civil writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of a writ in the nature of Certiorari for quashing the punishment order dated 31.03.2020 (Annexure P-1), the charge-sheets dated 16.11.2017 (Annexure P-3), 09.02.2018 (Annexure P-4) and 20.04.2018 (Annexure P-5) issued by respondent No.3, as well as the appellate order dated 27.08.2021 (Annexure P-2) passed under the delegated authority of respondent No.1, whereby the statutory appeal filed by the petitioner was dismissed. All the aforesaid orders are assailed as being illegal, arbitrary, unconstitutional and violative of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India. A further prayer has been made for issuance of a writ of Mandamus directing the respondents to stay the operation of the impugned punishment order dated 31.03.2020 (Annexure P-1) during the pendency of the present writ petition.

2. At the very outset, learned counsel for respondents No.2 and 3 seeks permission to withdraw the present writ petition with liberty to avail the alternative statutory remedy of revision. He further submits that the statutory revision may not be dismissed on the ground of delay.

3. In view of the above submission, the present writ petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to avail the statutory remedy of revision as provided under Section 69 of Punjab Cooperative Societies Act.

4. In case the petitioner prefers the revision petition within a period of one month from today, the same shall be entertained and decided on merits by the competent authority without raising the point of law of limitation, keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, without being influenced by the pendency or disposal of the present writ petition.
