CRM-M-36149-2025 (O & M)

Date of decision: 24.02.2026

NAVDEEP ALIAS NABBI

....Petitioner

Versus

STATE OF HARYANA

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. Aditya Sanghi, Advocate and Mr. Shivam Jindal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. B.S.Saroha, DAG, Haryana.

Mr. Sumeet S. Brar, Advocate, for the complainant.

AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023 is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.19 dated 16.01.2023, registered at Police Station Kalanwali, District Sirsa, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 307, 427, 216, 120-B and 472 IPC and Section 25 of the Arms Act, 54 of 1959.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for about 2½ years. He alleges false implication. As per the allegations, he has done reeve, but he was not present at the spot at the time of the alleged occurrence. Co-accused, namely, Sunil Kumar alias Manga, who was stated to be present at the spot, has since been granted bail by this Court, vide order dated 14.05.2025, Annexure P-8, after being in custody of 2 years and 3 months. Charges have been framed on 07.03.2025, however, only 2 PWs stand examined and there are still 52 more to go. He is involved in 3 more cases wherein he is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that it is a case of double murder, while two others have also sustained injuries and the petitioner had actively participated in the commission of offence. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case; the petitioner being on bail in other cases and the co-accused having been released on bail.

4. Heard.

5. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc." Reiterating in Prabhakar Tewari vs. State of UP and another, (2020) 11 SCC 648, it was observed that, "The offence alleged no doubt is grave and serious and there are several criminal cases pending against the accused. These factors by themselves cannot be the basis for refusal of prayer for bail.”

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 2 years, 5 months and 18 days; on bail in other cases; co-accused is on bail; charges stand framed on 07.03.2025, but out of 54 PWs, only 2 have been examined; the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

7. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/heavy surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.
- (ii) The petitioner will not pressurize/ intimidate the prosecution witnesses.
- (iii) The petitioner will appear before the trial Court on each and every date fixed, unless is exempted by a specific order of Court.
- (iv) The petitioner shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which, he is an accused, or for commission of which he is suspected of.
- (v) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly coerce, induce, threaten or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/ her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence in any manner.
- (vi) The petitioner shall not in any manner misuse his liberty.
- (vii) The petitioner shall furnish his address and mobile number by way of an affidavit to the trial Court and not change the same till conclusion of trial and if for any reasons, he seeks to change

- either of the aforesaid, it shall be done only with prior information to the learned trial Court.
- (viii) The petitioner shall not leave the country without prior permission of the trial Court.
 - (ix) The petitioner shall also report to the concerned Police Station on the first Monday of every month.
 - (x) The trial Court/Duty Magistrate may impose any other condition, as deemed appropriate while releasing the petitioner.

8. It is made abundantly clear that in case there is any breach of the aforesaid conditions, the State shall be at liberty to seek cancellation of bail as granted to the petitioner by this order.

9. In view of the above, it is clarified that the observations made herein above are limited for the purpose of present proceedings and would not be construed as any opinion on the merits of the case and the trial would proceed independently of the aforesaid observations.
