KULDEEP TIWARI, J.(Oral)

1. Through the instant petition, cast under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, a challenge is thrown to the Award dated 15.12.2016 (Annexure P-3), passed by respondent no.2, wherethrough, respondent no.1-workman, had been granted the relief of reinstatement with continuity of service alongwith 50% back wages from the date of the demand notice.

2. Today, there is no representation on behalf of respondent no.1 in Court.

3. During the pendency of the instant petition, unfortunately, the demise of respondent no.1-workman, has occurred, therefore, he could not enjoy the relief of reinstatement into service.

4. Upon hearing learned State counsel for the petitioner, he is unable to satisfy this Court, as to how respondent no.1-workman, is not entitled to 50% of back wages, specifically, when his services were terminated illegally.

5. Therefore, the instant petition, being bereft of any merit, is hereby, dismissed.

6. All pending application(s), if any, also stand disposed of accordingly.
