Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

1. In the present appeal, the challenge is to the impugned order dated 29.08.2022 passed by the learned Single Judge of this Court in CWP-911-2022.

2. Learned counsel for the appellant agrees that the duty of the appellant-son is to maintain his father-respondent No.2 under all circumstances hence, the appellant-son is ready to pay a sum of Rs.10,000/- every month to his father-respondent No.2 and such amount will be deposited by him in his Saving A/c No.1280001700216233, IFSC-PUNB0128000 in the name of Baljinder Singh, Punjab National Bank Branch Basantpura, District Patiala. Further, the appellant-son will start paying the said amount from 01.01.2026 onwards and the same will be deposited every month without any fail till the respondent No.2-father is alive.

3. Learned counsel for respondent No.2-senior citizen/father submits that in case the said undertaking is violated by the appellant-son, a liberty be given to the respondent No.2-senior citizen/father to revive the present appeal for adjudication of the same on merits.

4. Keeping in view the above, as agreed between the parties, the present appeal is disposed of with the observation that a sum of Rs.10,000/- starting from 01.01.2026 will be paid by the appellant-son to the respondent No.2-father and the said amount will be deposited by the 7th of every month in the saving account of the respondent-senior citizen as mentioned hereinbefore. It may be noticed that for the month of January & February, 2026, a sum of Rs.20,000/- will be deposited by the appellant-son by 28.02.2026.

5. It may be further noticed that till the appellant abides by the undertaking as given by him hereinbefore, the impugned order will not be enforced by the respondent No.2-senior citizen.

6. Civil miscellaneous application pending, if any, is also disposed of.
