Laxman Dass

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. J.S. Sandhu, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Gautam Kaile, DAG Haryana

Mr. G.S. Sidhu, Advocate for the complainant

AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.854 dated 01.10.2022, registered under Sections 147, 149, 323 IPC (Sections 216, 302 IPC) at Police Station City Sirsa, District Sirsa, Haryana.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for 1 year and more than 1 month. He alleges false implication. He was not named in the FIR, which was based on the statement of Balwan Singh (since deceased), while 4 more in the supplementary statement. His name surfaced based on the disclosure statement of co-accused Punit Sharma. The wife of the deceased namely Rani had also not named anyone, though is stated to be present at the spot. No recovery has been effected from the petitioner. Charges have been framed on 02.08.2025, however, out of 32 prosecution witnesses, only 1 namely Pappu Bavaria, who is stated to conniving the deceased at the time of occurrence stands examined, who have not supported the case of the prosecution. The petitioner is not involved in any other case.

3. The custody certificate dated 13.01.2026, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 1 year, 1 month and 3 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of having given stick blows to the deceased on legs and arms. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage and the petitioner being not involved in any other case.

5. Heard.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 1 year, 1 month and 3 days; not involved in any other case; charges were framed on 02.08.2025, however, 31 more prosecution witnesses still remain to be examined, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

7. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.
- (ii) The petitioner will not pressurize/ intimidate the prosecution witnesses.
- (iii) The petitioner will appear before the trial Court on each and every date fixed, unless is exempted by a specific order of Court.

- (iv) The petitioner shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which, he is an accused, or for commission of which he is suspected of.
- (v) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly coerce, induce, threaten or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/ her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence in any manner.
- (vi) The petitioner shall not in any manner misuse his liberty.
- (vii) The petitioner shall furnish his address and mobile number by way of an affidavit to the trial Court and not change the same till conclusion of trial and if for any reasons, he seeks to change either of the aforesaid, it shall be done only with prior information to the learned trial Court.
- (viii) The petitioner shall not leave the country without prior permission of the trial Court.
- (ix) The trial Court/Duty Magistrate may impose any other condition, as deemed appropriate while releasing the petitioner.

8. It is made abundantly clear that in case there is any breach of the aforesaid conditions, the State shall be at liberty to seek cancellation of bail as granted to the petitioner by this order.

9. In view of the above, it is clarified that the observations made herein above are limited for the purpose of present proceedings and would not be construed as any opinion on the merits of the case and the trial would proceed independently of the aforesaid observations.
