Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the outstanding amount of EPF, along with interest, as payable on 31.01.2026, shall be calculated and communicated to the petitioner on 31.01.2026 itself, and that the petitioner would be called upon to pay the said amount within a period of 15 days. He further submits that in case the amount is paid, it shall be accepted by the respondent-authorities.

2. That being so, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that nothing substantive survives in the instant contempt petition at this stage, and the petitioner does not wish to press the same. However, he submits that in case the statement is not honoured, the petitioner be granted liberty to move an application for revival of the present petition.
