2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for more than a year. As per the allegations, he has been attributed grievous injuries to the injured. No recovery has been effected from him of any weapon, thus, it is debatable that offence under Section 308 IPC is made out. There is delay of 3 days in lodging the FIR. 3. The custody certificate dated 26.01.2026, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 1 year and 8 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner with regard to the injuries having been inflicted on the back of the victim-Jasmail Singh, which is grievous in nature. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage and the petitioner being not involved in any other case.
