SUVIR SEHGAL, J. (ORAL)

1. This Court passed the following order on the previous hearing:-

“On 30.09.2024, this Court passed the following order:-

“Following order was passed on 28.11.2023:-

Despite last opportunity having been sought to address arguments, arguing counsel for petitioners is not present. It is submitted that he had to leave Court premises due to some unavoidable reasons.

At request, which is not opposed, adjourned to 19.12.2023.

In case, arguments are not advanced, interim order in favour of petitioners may be vacated.”

Today arguing counsel for the petitioners is not present, he is stated to be in personal difficulty.

At request, adjourned to 22.01.2025 for arguments, however, interim order in favour of the petitioners is vacated.”

A written request for adjournment has been circulated on behalf of counsel for the petitioners stating that he is out of station.

List on 12.05.2026.

To be shown in the urgent cause list.”

CWP-26537-2022*-2-

2. Despite grant of repeated opportunities, petitioners did not address arguments and interim order was vacated by this Court. Even thereafter, matter has been adjourned numerous times. Today, counsel for the petitioners states that his brief has been misplaced. When asked as to why he could not download the paper-book from the website of this Court and argue on the basis of a printout, he has no answer. It seems that petitioners are not interested in pursuing the matter.

3. Dismissed in default for non-prosecution. Liberty is, however, granted to petitioners to address the Court as and when they reconstruct the paper-book.
