19.03.2023, but no child was born from the said wedlock. Unfortunately, matrimonial dispute arose between the parties. The applicant is not having any source of earning and as such, is dependent upon her parental family. She has got lodged an FIR bearing No.99 dated 14.06.2024 under Sections 498-A, 406, 120-B of IPC, Police Station Dharamkot, District Moga and the respondent is facing trial relating to the same, in the Courts at Moga. The distance between the two places is stated to be 73 kilometres.

On the other hand, counsel for the respondent submits that the respondent has filed the petition for quashing of the aforesaid FIR. Further, it is submitted that before the Mediation Centre also, the applicant has not been making appearance.

In view of aforesaid, it is pertinent to mention that so far as the quashing proceedings are concerned, there is nothing coming on record about the same, to be pending before the Court. Otherwise also, with regard to the assertions about the applicant, not making appearance before the Mediation Centre, same is not to be considered by this Court. In any case, even though, there is no child born from the said wedlock, but however, the applicant herself is not having any source of earning and is dependent upon her parental family. The respondent is facing trial in criminal case in the Courts at Moga, wherein he is required to make appearance on each and every date of hearing.

Considering the aforesaid circumstances, the transfer application is allowed and the petition under Section 12 of the Hindu Marriage Act i.e. DMC/531/2023, titled 'Mandeep Singh Vs. Simranjeet
