3. The learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. The allegations levelled against him are baseless. As the petitioner is in custody since 23.08.2024 but none of the 17 prosecution witnesses has been examined so far, the Trial of the present case is not likely to be concluded anytime soon and therefore, he be granted the concession of bail.

4. The learned counsel for the State alongwith the counsel for the complainant, on the other hand, while referring to the status report dated 02.12.2025 contend that the petitioner-Sahail Kumar @ Sahil Thakur is an extortionist and a gang-leader having a group of 40-50 boys operating in Zirakpur. He demands weekly payments from business owners. As per the FIR, the petitioner alongwith his co-accused/Nikhil Choudhary and other gang members have committed multiple offences on various occasions including on 24.07.2024, 25.07.2024 and 27.07.2024. Further, threats are being meted out via foreign mobile numbers. Therefore, the petitioner is not entitled to the concession of bail. They, however, concede that the petitioner is in custody since 23.08.2024 but none of the 17 prosecution witnesses has been examined so far.

5. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

6. As per the FIR, the petitioner-Sahail Kumar @ Sahil Thakur, Nikhil Choudhary and others have attacked the hotels of the complainant on multiple occasions with their gang members who were variously armed. They have also looted the hotels of the complainant. The petitioner has got recovered two kirpans and two DVRs which were removed from the hotel. Further, investigation is pending regarding threatening calls being made from I.P. addresses pertaining to WhatsApp calls. Apparently, the petitioner is a desperate character. If he is granted the concession of bail, he is likely to misuse the said concession and commit further offences in future.

7. In view of the above discussion, I find no merit in the present petition and therefore, the same is dismissed.
