AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. These cases are disposed of by this common order as they arise out of the same FIR.
2. Prayer in the present petitions filed under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023, is for grant of regular bail to the petitioners in case FIR No.23 dated 01.03.2025, registered under Sections 308(4), 3(5), 109, 346 (added later on) of BNS and 25 of Arms Act at Police Station Sirhali, District Tarn Taran.
3. Learned counsel contends that the petitioners have been in custody for more than 9 months. They allege false implication. As per the allegations, they had stated to have fired, however, it is a case of no injury. Co-accused Karandeep Singh, who was riding the motorcycle, has been granted bail by this Court vide order dated 11.08.2025, Annexure P-2, after being in custody for 5 months and 10 days. Challan was presented on 28.04.2025, however, charges have not been framed and in all there are 12 witnesses. Petitioner-Arshdeep Singh is involved in 1 more case under the Arms Act, wherein he is on bail, while petitioner-Robanpreet Singh not involved in any other case. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

4. The custody certificates dated 19.01.2026, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioners are behind bars for 9 months and 8 days.

5. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are serious allegations have been leveled against the petitioners of having fired thrice at the police party, who were trying to apprehend them, which hit the tank of the official vehicle. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case; petitioner-Arshdeep being on bail in another case while Robanpreet being not involved in any other case and co-accused has been granted bail.

6. Heard.

7. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc.”

8. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioners are in custody for the last 9 months and 8 days; petitioner-Arshdeep is on bail in another case and Robanpreet not involved in any other case; co-accused has been granted bail; challan was presented on 28.04.2025, however, charges are yet to be framed and in all there are 12 witnesses; the trial is likely to take a considerable time and further incarceration of the petitioners would be violative of their right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petitions are allowed.

9. The petitioners are ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-
