SANJAY VASHISTH, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in this petition, filed under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023 (earlier Section 438 Cr.P.C.), is for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, who has been booked in a criminal case arising out of FIR No.45, dated 03.04.2025, under Sections 333, 115(2), 191(2), 190, 351(2) of BNS, 2023, registered at Police Station Sri Anandpur Sahib, District Rupnagar.

2. On 19.09.2025, following order was passed:

“(i) Prayer in this petition under Section 482 of BNSS, 2023 is for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.45, dated 03.04.2025, under Sections 333, 115(2), 191(2), 190, 351(2) of BNS, 2023, registered at Police Station Sri Anandpur Sahib, District Rupnagar.

(ii) Notice of motion.

(iii) Mr. G.S. Dhaliwal, AAG, Punjab accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State. Both the parties have been heard and material on file has been perused.

(iv) The present case was registered on the basis of statement given to the police by Gurwinder Singh son of Niranjan Singh with the allegations that on 31.03.2025 he was present at his house and in the meanwhile, at about 9:00 am, Raghuvir Singh and his brother-in-law Pamma son of Jagtar Singh (petitioner) came at his house and knocked at the door and started abusing him. When he did not open the door, they came inside and started beating him. Pamma gave a Kirch blow on his head, on which he fell unconscious and thereafter, Raghuvir Singh caused injuries on his legs. They were also accompanied by two more persons who also caused injuries to him and when he cried for help, his neighbours were attracted to the spot, who took him to the hospital for treatment.

(v) Learned counsel for the petitioner contended that in fact, it is the opposite party which had assaulted them and Raghuvir Singh's wife namely Harjeet Kaur had given a statement to the Police on the same day but the DDR was registered on 11.04.2025 for the offences under Sections 74, 78, 79 and 126 (2) of BNS, 2023. Learned counsel for the petitioner further contended that only simple injuries have been suffered by the victim and petitioner is ready to join the investigation and to abide by the conditions that may be imposed by the Court and benefit of anticipatory bail be extended to the petitioner.

(vi) On the other hand, learned State counsel has opposed the bail and argued that petitioner does not deserve the concession of bail in view of the gravity of the offence.

(vii) Adjourned to 18.11.2025 for filing status report. Meanwhile, the petitioner is directed to join the investigation and in the event of his arrest, he shall be admitted to ad-interim bail on furnishing bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Arresting/Investigating Officer, subject to the following conditions as envisaged under Section 482(2) of the BNSS [erstwhile Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.]:

- i) that the petitioner shall make himself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required;*
- ii) that the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;*
- iii) that the petitioner shall not leave India without the prior* permission of the Court;

iv) such other condition as may be imposed under sub-section (3) of Section 480, as if the bail were granted under that section. ”

3. Learned State counsel on instructions from SI Dharampal, contends that in compliance to the order dated 19.09.2025 passed by this Court, the petitioner has joined the investigation on 15.10.2025, and as of now, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation.

4. Since, petitioner has already joined the investigation and custodial interrogation is no more required; ad-interim bail order dated 19.09.2025 passed by this Court is hereby made absolute. Accordingly, present petition is allowed.

5. The petitioner shall continue to join the investigation as and when required to do so and abide by all the terms and conditions laid down under Section 482(2) of BNSS, 2023.

6. However, present order would be subject to the submission of his passport to the Investigating Agency or to Court concerned, if he possesses, within a period of one week from today. Otherwise, he would submit an affidavit, disclosing the fact that he does not possess any passport.

7. It is clarified that in case, aforesaid condition is not complied with, this order would be considered as non est automatically.
